Coventry-Hartigan Rites at Inman

INMAN—The Inman Methodist church was the scene Saturday afternoon, April 2, at 2:30 o'clock of the wedding ceremony uniting Miss Joan Lee Coventry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Coventry, and Graydon E. Hartigan, son of Mrs. Marye Hartigan, all are of Inman.

Rev. L. E. Mewmaw, church pastor, officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with white candles in a seven-branch candelabrum and baskets of white snapdragons and yellow jonquils.

Mrs. Lewis F. Kopecky furnished the nuptial music and Mrs. Donald Loy of O'Neill sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of chantilly lace and tulle over white satin. Long, fitted sleeves and a mandarin collar accented the basque-type lace bodice. The bouffant tulle skirt with insets of chantilly lace fell into a chapel sweep train. Her French illusion fingertip veil was held in place by a lace half-hat edged with seed pearls, and she carried a bridal bouquet of pink delight roses with removable corsage. Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss Kay Coventry, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor, and wore a waltz-length gown of orchid lace and net over taffeta with a matching stole and head-dress. She carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Bill Coventry, brother of the bride, lighted the candles preceding the ceremony.

The bridegroom, his brother, Paul Hartigan of Page, who served as bestman, and the ushers, LeRoy Moore of O'Neill and Gordon Spiles, all wore business suits with white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother wore a two-piece navy blue shantung dress with which she used navy and white accessories and her corsage was pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore an aqua dress with navy accessories and her corsage was also pink carnations.

A reception for over one hundred guests was held at the Maxey Memorial addition following the ceremony. Coffee, ice cream and cake were served. The bride's table was decorated with a white cloth centered with an all-white three-tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and baked by Miss Faye
