

4 Students from India Coming Here To Visit 4 Holt Farms in August

The Holt county extension council held the spring meeting in the assembly room at the courthouse on Tuesday, April 12. Thirty-five members answered roll call.

The meeting was opened by Mrs. Robert Martens of Atkinson, county chairman.

The sum of $17.51 was collected in "pennies for friendship" from the clubs in the county.

The citizenship chairman announced that county government day will be held in June.

Deadline for the layettes for the University hospital is May 1. Layettes are to be forwarded to the county agent's office.

The national council meeting will be held in Chicago, Ill., August 21 to 25. Anyone interested should contact Mrs. Elizabeth Grant of Fremont, Dodge county home agent.

Home demonstration week will be held the first week in May with each of the clubs planning its own entertainment.

Suggestions were taken for handicraft lessons. They include textile painting, wood finishing, figurine making and painting, and the making and etching of aluminum trays.

The program planning committee will meet at a later date to fix next year's program.

The announcement of coming events was made by County Agent A. Neil Dawes. Those made were: Safety meeting will be held at the Legion hall Monday, April 18, at 8 p.m., and the public is invited to attend this meeting. The 4-H family fun night will be held at the public school Saturday, April 23, at 7 o'clock.

Four international youth exchange students from India will be placed in four Holt county farm homes in August. The homes are Robert Martens of Atkinson, Frank Beelaert of Page, Glen White of Amelia and Charles Mulford of Stuart.

A coffee hour was arranged by Mrs. Martens. Plans were discussed for home demonstration week.

Boyd Merrill Joins Council Oak Store

Boyd Merrill of Fremont this week joined the Council Oak store here as manager of the meat department. Mr. Merrill is a veteran meat cutter, according to Manager Darel Slaymaker.

Mr. Merrill will move his wife and three high school-age children to O'Neill after the close of the present school term. The children include: Andrea, 17, who will be a senior; Donnette, 16, to be a junior; and Warren, 13, to be a freshman.

Phone Switchboard at Page Goes 'Dead'

PAGE—The Page switchboard went "dead" Friday evening and repair men worked until 1 o'clock to restore it to working order. It was necessary to make a trip to O'Neill to report the "disaster."

Publishes 'Wounded Knee' Book

"Tragedy Strikes at Wounded Knee", a brand new book by Will H. Spindler, U. S. Indian Service teacher at the Wounded Knee Day school, Wounded Knee, S.D., is just off the press. Published by the Journal Publishing Co., of Gordon, this book contains 17 of the author's best true and authentic feature stories (no fiction) published by the Rapid City Daily Journal, the Daily Argus-Leader, Sioux Falls, S.D., the Denver Post, the Gordon Journal, Gordon and other newspapers the past few years.

Included in these feature stories on the Sioux Indians of the past and present, pioneer and Indian history, and Mr. and Mrs. Spindler's experiences in the Indian service, are the complete story of the Wounded Knee Massacre of December 29, 1890; the last great sun dance of the Sioux; the buffalo dance; the Sioux "Omaha" dance; the outbreak of the Northern Cheyenne Indians at old Ft. Robinson, and annihilation by the troops; and many other accounts of Sioux history, lore, and customs that are rapidly becoming lost to posterity.

Will Spindler . . . 17 best and authentic Indian stories into one volume.

"Tragedy Strikes at Wounded Knee", is Spindler's fifth book. His previous books are "Comrades of the Lone Star," "Lure of the Hills," "Rim of the Sandhills," and "Badlands Trails." (Of these books, only "Badlands Trails" is still on sale by the author. This book is on the Badlands and on the Pine Ridge reservation. ($1.50 per copy post-paid.)

Mr. and Mrs. Spindler have spent over 25 years as teacher and housekeeper in Indian day schools on the Pine Ridge Indian reservation of South Dakota. Of these years, 20 were spent at the Medicine Bow day school, Potato Creek; one at the Manderson day school; and they are now in their fifth year at the Wounded Knee day school (less than a mile from the historic battlefield and cemetery of the Wounded Knee affair of 1890.)

Will is a son of the late George H. Spindler and a nephew of Frank Spindler of O'Neill.
