Springtime Chocolate Souffle

A delicious new dessert that's light and fluffy-and rich and nourishing—makes welcome news for homemakers this season. Sure to please youngsters and grown-ups alike, "Springtime Chocolate Souffle" is elegant enough to make even the simplest meal a special occasion. There is a "secret ingredient" which supplies extra-good flavor and texture interest: a dozen crushed cream-filled chocolate cookies! Here's how to make this new springtime treat.

Springtime Chocolate Souffle

3 tablespoons sugar 1 cup milk 1 tablespoon butter or margarine 1/8 teaspoon salt

3 eggs, separated 1 teaspoon vanilla 114 cups (about 1 dozen) Hydrox chocolate cookies, finely broken Heat oven to 325°F. (slow oven). In the top of a double boiler over direct heat, scald milk. Remove from heat. Stir in the broken Hydrox cookies. Add butter. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon-colored. Add sugar and salt. Pour about half of the milk and cookie mixture slowly sugar and salt. Pour about half of the milk and cookie mixture slowly over the egg yolks, stirring to blend. Pour the egg yolk mixture back into the double boiler top, along with the remaining milk and cookie mixture. Set double boiler top in place over rapidly boiling water; continue to cook, stirring constantly, until the custard coats a metal spoon (about 5 minutes). Beat with a rotary beater to blend the cookie bits thoroughly with the custard. Add vanilla. Beat egg whites stiff. Fold into cookie mixture. Pour souffle into 6 well-greased custard cups. Set cups into a shallow baking dish and pour boiling water around them to come half way up the sides. Bake at 325°F. for 40 to 45 minutes, or until slightly browned on top. Serve at once with light cream or favorite custard sauce. Makes 6 servings.

Omaha Adds to World Lead-

Omaha, so far this year topranking livestock market, Monday added to its lead. Meanwhile this central market had trade trends that were mixed.

Fed heifers sold steady, slaughter steers and yearlings steady to 25c lower, instances off more. Larger waterfills, however, helped offset price declines. Slaughter steers and yearlings bulked at $20-$25.50, with better steers to $26.50 and $27, strictly top steers unrepresented; fed heifers to $24.50; plain killers $19.50 down, quite a few sales of Holstein, steers $25.25-$18.50. Cows sold steady to weak, spots 25c off, canners and cutters $9.50 29. $11, "shells" down to $9; beef cows to $15 sparingly.
