Schroeder Chosen Speaker for Meet

6-State Soil Group to Convene Here

Plans for the forthcoming area meeting of soil conservation districts to be held in O'Neill, Nebr., on June 1 and 2, were discussed this week. Taking part in the talks were Harry Massey of Broken Bow, president of the State Association of Soil Conservation districts; Albert Wasson of Wayne, state director; C. W. Buck, area conservationist; members of the Holt district's board of supervisors, and a committee of the O'Neill Chamber of Commerce.

Dates for the area meeting are June 1 and 2. An evening banquet is planned June 1 with Norris Schroeder a Coloradoan, to be the guest speaker. Schroeder formerly farmed in Wayne county and served in the Nebraska legislature.

On June 2 there will be a noon lunch and the evening will feature a chuck wagon supper and entertainment at the C Bar M ranch. Some 200 representatives from a six-state area are expected to attend this meeting. Local businessmen, farmers and ranchers are urged to take an active part in these meetings and help the Chamber of Commerce and the Holt Soil Conservation district board of supervisors welcome the visitors to the sandhills, according to C. R. ("Bob") Hill, unit conservationist.

Hitchcock's Big Ox Preps for Race Meet

A big brown thoroughbred, who won his first three races at Ak-Sar-Ben last year, is back at the Omaha track conditioning for the 35-day meeting which gets underway Thursday, May 19.

The runner's name is Big Ox, and he was a solid favorite with Ak-Sar-Ben racing fans last year, particularly during the first seven days of the 1954 meeting when he went to the post three times that week and won all three outings. The 7-year-old gelded son of Ox Blood-Miss Courtesy now is owned by Jasper Hitchcock of Atkinson.

Starting the 1955 season at Oaklawn park, he's been in the money once in three starts.

Hitchcock has four other runners in training for the Omaha opening. His Stormy Waters, 6-year-old son of Devil Diver, won three last year and had a victory at the recent Oaklawn meeting in Hot Springs, Ark.

Saxon Door, well-known to Ak-Sar-Ben fans, won two last year, and has made an impressive start this year with three seconds in four starts.

Others in the Hitchcock string are Speed Service, a winner at Hot Springs, and a good looking but untried 3-year-old called Mary's Request.

Mr. Hitchcock and his wife spent much of the winter in Atkinson, several weeks in Arkansas and are now at "Ak."
