Troshynskis Feted

PAGE-Expecting to entertain the Thursday Evening Bridge club and having to cancel that in favor of a relative's self-invited dinner date, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Troshynski were totally unpre-pared to greet more than 50 guests who arrived by surprise to help them celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

The evening was spent at cards with Oswald Goldfuss and Les-lie Lines the winners of the high score prizes and Mrs. Oswald Goldfuss and N. D. Ickes, sr., holding low scores. Flash pictures were taken of the 25-year "bride and bridegroom" and the "bride" was coaxed to don her wedding dress and veil for a picture.

The Troshynskis are the par-ents of two children, Miss Marjorie, R.N., at Alliance, and Hugh, a senior at the Page high school. Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Pongratz, and Dan Troshynski were married at the Church of the Epiphany at Emmet with Father Bryne officiating, on May 6, 1930.
