Schools Get $8.47 Per Pupil, Based on Apportionment, Fines

State apportionment of $47-193.72 plus $16,065.82 from fines and licenses collected in Holt county, making a total of $63-259.54, was divided last week among 158 eligible school districts in the county, according to Miss Alice French, Holt county superintendent of public instruction. Each district received $9.23 as its share "per district."

There were 4,198 children from 5 to 21 years of age on the census in Holt county and the amount paid per pupil was $8.4756. The Holt county fines and licenses increased the "per child" share from the state amount of $4.6486 to $8.4756.

School lands received $9,037.08 and the free high school fund received $3,903.10.

The amounts received by districts varied from $101.76 where one pupil was on the census to $7,812.04 with 901 on the census, Miss French explained.
