

Pirate Theme in Page High Banquet

Walker, Stewart Are Crowned

PAGE—A South Sea island atmosphere was created with a palm tree background and the class colors were used in the blue sky and silver star decorations as a fitting setting for the "Pirate" theme chosen for the Page Junior-senior banquet held Tuesday evening, May 10, at the high school auditorium.

The junior class mothers prepared a menu of sea raiders booty wild boar, Captain Kidd salad, golden nuggets, loot of gold, sea weeds, jade jewels, treasure island and chest of gems accompanied by a potion of black poison.

Sharon Crumley, Judy Simmons, Judy Terrill, Eddie Walker, Lyle Heiss and Dennis Cunningham, members of the sophomore class, served as waiters. Leona Summers was toastmaster and the program featured Marian Heiss, Faye Ballantyne, Supt. Ralph Brostrom, Eddie Walker, Hugh Troshynski and Helen Finch in the role of "Miss Captain Smollett," "Mrs. Faye Hawkins," "Black Beard," "Long John Silver," "Peg Leg Charlie" and "Captain Kidd."

A prom followed the banquet. Music was furnished by Noel Weismann and his orchestra. Eddie Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cordes Walker, and Sherry Stewart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edd Stewart, were crowned king and queen.

Brahmas Haven't Learned Manners

STUART—A group of students from the University of Nebraska came Saturday, May 7, to practice bronc riding, bulldogging and other rodeo stunts at the G. L. Obermire pasture, located three miles north of Stuart.

Mr. Obermire, local rodeo promoter, recently brought a truckload of Brahma stock from Florida. "These Brahmas haven't learned rodeo manners yet," he explains.

On Sunday a large crowd gathered for the amateur rodeo at the pasture chutes. Net profits from the gate receipts went to Boy Scout troop 182.

Mr. Obermire took his rodeo stock to Lincoln for the annual university rodeo which was held Friday and Saturday, May 13 and 14.

Ed Tomlinson Is Rodeo Winner

Ed Tomlinson of O'Neill, a junior at the ag college, won first in bareback bronc riding at the university rodeo. His brother, George, a freshman, competed in the rodeo but failed to place.

Young Homemakers See Demonstration

ATKINSON—The Young Homemakers club met at the home of Mrs. Ray Goeke Wednesday, May 11, with 11 members answering roll call by naming the kind of sewing machine each had.

A lesson concerning new fabrics was given by Mrs. Ray Forbes.

Two men from a sewing machine company gave a demonstration on using an electric machine and attachments.

The June meeting will be with Mrs. Vernon Siebert.

Willa Schollmeyer, Pupils Visit The Frontier

Mrs. Willa Schollmeyer and her pupils from district 32, in the Redbird locality, recently toured The Frontier plant and the "Voice of The Frontier" radio studios. They also stopped at several other points of interest in O'Neill.

Starts 2d Term As Secretary

Miss Barbara Bennett was recently elected to her second term as secretary of the student council of Minnesota Bible college, Minneapolis, Minn. She has been on the honor roll for the past two quarters.

Miss Bennett and her fiancé, Russell Galbreath, spent the week of April 23 to May 2 visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Galbreath, of Swayzee, Ind. They also attended the North American Christian convention in Indianapolis, Ind.

Robert Allen of Omaha visited over the weekend at the home of his mother, Mrs. Jerrold Dusatko, and Mr. Dusatko.

Mr. Lizzard (Also Known as 'Gizzard') Gets Attention

ROCK FALLS—During the final week of the school term a little lizzard, whom the small fry in district 33 invariably refer to as "gizzard," was making his home in the school room.

Mr. Lizzard didn't add to the wild life population, however, because the pupils decided to release a captive frog. The frog failed to command much attention when the competition sharpened with the lizzard's arrival.

Plays in Concert—

Miss Marde Johnson returned Sunday after having participated in a tri-state music festival at Enid, Okla. She left Wednesday, May 11.

Miss Johnson was extended the honor by Doctor Matty, her instructor last summer at the national music camp at Interlochen, Mich.

She was accompanied by her mother, Mrs. R. E. Evans, and her brother, Bobby.
