Loud Voices in Hall Foretell Guests

ROCK FALLS — One of the many provocations of life: When at the close of a busy day (one of these very windy days) one kicks off the shoes and stretches out on the lounge to relax a while after supper, then quietly drifts off to dreamland, only to be rudely aroused by numerous loud voices in the doorway. However, that fleeting moment of possibly the urge to do something rash quickly vanishes as one recognizes the faces of friends and neighbors.

Such was the case on Saturday night when friends dropped in at the Fred Ernst home and surprised that person on his birthday anniversary. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Loyal Hull, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Vitt and family, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Curran and girls, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Vequist and children.

The evening was spent playing pitch with high scores going to Francis Curran and Mrs. Vitt and lows to Arthur O'Neill and Mrs. Curran, after which a lunch of ice cream, cake and coffee was served.
