Sunday Night Rain Totals .48 of Inch

Moisture General in This Region

Thunder showers brought moisture to the city of O'Neil late Sunday night, starting about 11:30 o'clock. The official amount received was .48 of an inch. The storm, moving in from the west, was accompanied by considerable wind and lightning.

Sidney Faulhaber of Venus reported a half-inch rainfall in his locality; Tom and Larabee Kelley reported .33 of an inch. Norman Saltz, residing one-half mile north and three miles east of Page, said his place received "not a drop." Earnest Wright, who lives on the McKenzie place southwest of Redbird, was in O'Neil Monday and estimated .50 of an inch fell there.

Imman's unofficial "take" on the Sunday night rain was .40. Earl House, who lives four miles east of Atkinson, estimated .75 of an inch precipitation was received at his place. John Fredrickson, who resides north of Bristow, estimated rainfall at .70 of an inch late Sunday. Bristow received about the same amount, he indicated.

The Felix Hendricks place, east of O'Neil, received .80; Lindley Crumley, near Page, over a half-inch.

The Norman Saltzes also were outside the favored circle Tuesday, May 17, when general showers visited most of the sandhills region.

Other reports:
Valentine, 63; North Platte, 33; Norfolk, trace; Burwell, .28; Imperial, .31; Sidney, .59; Scottsbluff, .04; Chadron, .50; Pickstown, .39; Sioux City, .10; Rapid City, .14; Neligh, .25; Newport, .50; Fairfax, .34; Herrick, .25; Verdigris, .17; Lynch, .60; Spencer, .50; Gregory, .80.

Moisture figures for the Deloit community for the month of May include: May, 1953, 11.40; May, 1954, 8.48; May, 1955, 1.99.

During the Tuesday, May 17, shower and storm, a cow belonging to Frank Mlinarik was killed by lightning.

Burns Phone
Another nice shower fell on the Rock Falls community Sunday evening. It was accompanied by considerable lightning and some wind in places. Lightning burned out the phone in the Dave Moler home and damaged the house slightly.
