Rites at St. John's

EWING—Bouquets of peonies decorated the altar of St. John's Catholic church for the Tuesday, May 24, wedding of Miss Joan Mlnarik and Samuel J. Stearns. Rev. Alfred Hoelsing officiated at the 9 a.m. double-ring ceremony. Richard Mlnarik and Bill Bauer served.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mlnarik of Ewing. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Homer Stearns of Norfolk.

Soloist was Mrs. Gerald Lampert of Stanton, who sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, O Beautiful Mother" as the bride and bridegroom placed a bouquet of flowers on the altar of the Blessed Virgin. Mrs. Mark Sebi was organ accompanist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of imported, hand-clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The molded bodice buttoned down the back with tiny self-covered buttons and was styled with a small collar. The full skirt, worn over hoops, was fashioned with a deep plenum of tulle banded with lace which fell into a cathedral train. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion was attached to a crown studded with tiny seed pearls, sequins and rhinestones. Her bouquet was of red roses forming into a cascade.

Miss Yvonne Mlnarik was her sister's maid-of-honor. She wore a strapless, floor-length gown of orchid net. Her bare shoulders were covered with a jacket of lace. The net skirt dramatized a shirred band extending around the hip line.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Clarabel Mlnarik, sister of the bride, and Miss Madene Stearns, cousin of the bridegroom, wore yellow and blue gowns identical to that of the maid-of-honor. All carried bouquets of carnations.

The flowergirl, Miss Jeanne Finley, cousin of the bride, wore a floor-length gown of net over taffeta which featured six rows of tiny ruffles and bands of taffeta. She carried a basket of assorted flowers and strewn petals in the aisle on the way to the altar.

The bridegroom was attired in a white dinner jacket with white trousers. The bestman, Cletus Thramer, friend of the bridegroom, and the groomsmen, Larry Anderson and John Mlnarik, wore suits identical to the bridegroom's. All wore red carnation boutonnières as did the fathers of the bride and bridegroom.

The ringbearer, Tom Mlnarik, brother of the bride, carried the rings on a heart-shaped white satin covered pillow edged with lace.

Maynard Stearns and Leo Mlnarik ushered.

The bride's mother chose a blue nylon dress for her daughter's wedding, and the bridegroom's mother appeared in a yellow rayon dress. They wore pink carnation corsages. The grandmothers wore white carnation corsages.

The wedding breakfast for the bridal party was served at the home of Mrs. Alex Thramer following the wedding ceremony.

A three-course dinner was served in the church parlors at noon to 50 relatives and friends. The bride's table was centered with a white three-tier wedding cake surrounded with tiny red rosebuds and topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. The cake was baked by Mrs. Carl Thiele. Mrs. Maynard Stearns cut the cake.

The dinner was prepared by Mrs. Albin Thramer, Mrs. Mark Thramer, Mrs. Ludwig Tagel, Mrs. Carl Thiele and Mrs. Cletus Muff. It was served by Bernadine Rotherham, Maxine Noffke, Helen Rotherham and Geraldine Rotherham.

A reception also at the church, was held in the afternoon with 175 relatives and friends present. Cake and ice cream were served. Mrs. Alex Thramer was in charge of the guest book. Assisting with the gifts were Neta Lee Mabon and Phyllis Kerkmann. The church was decorated in the bride's colors of blue, yellow and orchid.

For the wedding trip the bride chose a red orlon dress with beige accessories. On their return the young couple will make their home in Norfolk.
