Rockets Squeeze Past Bassett, 8-7 Helmer's Triple Is Key to Victory

The O'Neill Rockets baseball team successfully defended its first place standing in the North-Central Nebraska day-and-night league Sunday evening by squeezing out an 8-7 win over Bassett. O'Neill trailed Bassett 6-7 going into the ninth inning when Helmer, pinch-hitting for Couch, clouted a triple with two men on base, chasing in the two needed tallies. Gorgen, who pitched the first four innings for O'Neill, gave up four hits, seven runs and he struck out one. Kelly, the relief pitcher, yielded one hit and whiffed seven. Thus far in the season, the Rockets have collected 28 hits and have a team batting average of .368.4, according to Manager Dick Tomlinson. O'Neill will go against Chambers at Carney park Sunday evening at 8 o'clock.
