

Program Concludes Ewing Bible School

EWING—A program and exhibition brought the vacation Bible school to a close Friday evening, May 27, for the boys and girls of the United States Presbyterian and the First Methodist churches. The school was held at the Methodist church. A large crowd of interested parents and friends were in attendance.

Songs, Bible memory work, skits made up the evening's entertainment, carrying out the theme, "Marching Together for Jesus." Some excellent craft work was on display.

Pianist were the Misses, Janell Hoke, Carolyn Tams and Sandra Shradler. Mrs. Carl Christon of the United Presbyterian church was the superintendent of the vacation bible school. Mrs. J. L. Pruden was the secretary-treasurer.

Teachers were: Nursery class—Mrs. W. J. Bomer, assistant, Patricia Hahlbeck; Beginners—Mrs. Richard Napier, assistants Janell Hoke and Sandra Shradler; Primary—Mrs. Archie Johnson and Mrs. Lionel Gunter, assistants, Carolyn Tams and Maryetta Petersen; Juniors—Ina Bennett and Mrs. Claude Elliot, assisted by Patricia Wright; Junior high—Mrs. Robert Tams, assisted by Linda Tuttle.

During the week, the average daily attendance was 81. A sack lunch was enjoyed at the noon hour.
