Beghtol-Thompson Nuptials at Kearney

The marriage of Miss Barbara Ann Beghtol and Paul J. Thompson was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony at 4:30 p.m., Sunday, June 12. Rev. Ralph Hamilton performed the ceremony in the First Presbyterian church, Kearney.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marjorie Beghtol of Kearney and the bridegroom's parents are Mrs. Dorothy Thompson of Acushnet, Mass., and Burtleigh Thompson of Hastings, Neb.

The bride, given in marriage by her grandfather, Dr. L. A. Carter, appeared in a white linen suit with matching accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses and carried a white prayer book.

Miss Sylvia Christensen of Holdrege acted as maid-of-honor. She wore a red and white nylon cord suit with a corsage of white roses. Miss Charlotte Fisher presided over the guest book.

Henry Kamaag of Lincoln served the bridegroom's best man. Rod Landers and Carter Beghtol were ushers.

Mrs. George Cammann, pianist, played "Traumerie," "Romance" and the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. William Lynn played a violin solo, "Adoration," and William Lynn sang "Bless This House."

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Beghtol chose a suit of charcoal with pink accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was given at the Ft. Kearney hotel for the wedding party and guests.

Guests from out-of-town were Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Carter of O'Neill, Mr. and Mrs. Carter Beghtol of San Antonio, Tex., Burtleigh Thompson of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Thompson of Bloomington, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Pollman of Bloomington, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Casey of Oconto, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Greenfield and children of Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Ricker of Hastings, and Mrs. Ernest Moser of Hastings.

The bride and bridegroom will take a trip through the New England states following the University of Nebraska summer school session. The couple will be at home in Lincoln at 336 N. 17th street.

Verle Ralya, Mary Belser, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Weaver and C. E. Jones attended the Central Finance corporation picnic dinner in Norfolk Saturday. Mr. Jones also attended a Central Finance business meeting there.

Flowers - Shermer Nuptials at Burwell

AMELIA — In a double-ring ceremony performed by Rev. A. J. Hindman at the Methodist church in Burwell at 2:30 o'clock Saturday, May 28, Miss Shirley Flowers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gadis Flowers of Burwell, became the bride of Duane Shermer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Asa Shermer of the Amelia community.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She appeared in a gown of white tulle and lace over satin. Her fingertip veil of illusion net was held in place by a band of pleated net trimmed with pearls. She carried a cascade of red roses with white satin streamers on a white Bible, a gift from the bridegroom.

Miss June Criss, a close friend of the bride, was maid-of-honor. The bridegroom wore a light gray business suit. Acting as best man was Gary Shermer, brother of the bridegroom.

Miss Ellen Shermer, sister of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

The reception was held at the church for some 200 guests immediately following the wedding.

After a honeymoon to the Black Hills, the Shermers are at home on a farm south of Ord, where the bridegroom is employed by Joe Bonne.
