

Casey Tibbs Might Ride at Stuart

STUART — "Buzzy" Hoover, who was in Stuart this week making final arrangements to bring his rodeo, the ox yoke championship rodeo, to Stuart for the eighth annual American Legion rodeo, assured members of the rodeo committee that he will bring some of the top riders around for the rodeo-goers entertainment.

Several of the top-ranking cowboys last year in the final RCA standings competed almost exclusively in his rodeos. Among the better known were Casey Tibbs, Bill Lawrence, Jim Shoulters, and others.

Casey Tibbs has not made a definite promise, he plans to ride in Stuart this year.

The rodeo, one of the five largest in Nebraska, is scheduled for June 25 and 26, instead of the Fourth of July, as in past years. It is felt that by having the rodeo on a date other than a regular celebrated day, more people will be able to attend.

There will be one show Saturday evening and two on Sunday, one in the afternoon and one in the evening.

Mrs. William Halva and son, Billy, and daughter, Jean, of Lynch were shopping in O'Neill on Friday and also visited at the Victor and Jerry Halva homes.
