EWING—The wedding vows of Miss Josephine Rupp, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rupp, and Glen Tuttle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tuttle of Ewing, were spoken at 9 o'clock on Saturday morning, August 20, in the immaculate Conception church at Cherokee, Ia. Rev. John Eagan officiated in the double-ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Beryl Rupp. The bodice of her gown was of lace-covered satin and the skirt of net with inset panels of lace. An Elizabethan crown secured the fingertip veil in place. She carried an arm bouquet of gladioli and pink roses.

The bride carried a small prayer book that her mother had carried August 20, 1912, and that her sister, Mrs. Gerald Meyer, carried August 20, 1947.

Miss Ann Mae Thomas, maid-of-honor, wore a light blue floor-length dress of net and lace and carried a colonial bouquet.

Bestman was the bridegroom's uncle, Robert Weis. Norman Rupp and Lester Donaldson were ushers.

Russell Tuttle, brother of the bridegroom, served as ring bearer.

Miss Joan Ford played the prelude, also during the wedding. She accompanied Miss Patricia Smith as she sang "Ave Maria" by Roswig and "Panis Angelicus."

A reception for 80 guests was held at the church parlors. A three-tier cake decorated with light blue roses, a pair of bells and doves, centered the serving table. The two top tiers of the cake were placed on white pillars.

Gerry Hanson served punch. Waitresses were Misses Lois Rupp, Norman Donaldson, Karen Kennedy, Kathi Perrin, Susan Brechwald and Gerry George. Gerry Hanson and Anna Mae Thomas were in charge of the gift table and Dottie Dugan, the gift book.

For the wedding trip to Minnesota, the bride traveled in a light blue suit with white accessories. Since August 29 the couple has been at home in apartment 401 of the Gran apartments.

The bride is a graduate of Immaculate Conception high school and the bridegroom was graduated from Ewing high school.

Wedding guests came from Denver, Colo.; Dubuque, Ia.; Dyersville, Ia.; Milwaukee, Wis.; Ewing and Spencer.
