

Shirley Ann Naber
Bride of Navy Man

ATKINSON—St. John's Lutheran church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Shirley Ann Naber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Naber of Atkinson, and Dale Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wilson of North Platte, formerly of Butte, at 8 o'clock Sunday evening, September 4. Rev. E. W. Dantisch performed the double-ring ceremony.

Marjorie Sire of Butte played the wedding music and accompanied Howard Story, also of Butte, who sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white nylon tulle and French lace fashioned with a bateau neckline and fitted bodice. The gown featured long tight sleeves ending in points at the wrists. Lace pinnies accented the full skirt which fell into a court train. Miniature buttons and loops completed the trim. A half-hat of chantilly lace trimmed with satin and tiny pearls held the elbow-length veil of imported English illusion. Her bouquet was a cascade arrangement of red roses and angel feathers with white satin streamers.

Paula Lee Wells of Butte served as maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Marilou Sieler of Butte, Patricia Tienken of Naper and Dorothy Hahn of Butte. All were gowned in identically fashioned waltz-length, soft blue silk brocade gowns and wore matching headbands. They carried colonial bouquets of tiny white mums.

Tommy Saunders of Lincoln and Ronnie Mitchell of Atkinson were the candlelighters. Venita Jean Schwindt, gowned in white satin, was flowergirl and carried a basket of mums. John Cecil Naber of David City was the ringbearer.

Serving his brother as best man was Keith Wilson of North Platte. Groomsman were Jerry Coburn, Elmer Bachman and Duane Zeisler. Ushers were Harold Fernau and Harold Coburn.

A reception for two hundred guests was held in the church parlors. A three-tier wedding cake trimmed and decorated with the bride's colors of white and blue centered the bride's table. After the newlyweds cut the first piece, Mrs. John Schwindt cut the cake. Mrs. Louis Siebert served the punch and Mrs. G. L. Saunders poured the coffee. Mrs. R. S. Coburn was hostess at the reception. Servers were Marilyn Smith, Gayle Siebert, Carol Wells and Susanne Saunders.

Sandra Saunders of Lincoln had charge of the guest book. Twila and Deana Wilson were in charge of gifts.

The bride attended Atkinson high school and graduated from Butte high school in 1954. She attended Lincoln School of Commerce and has been employed in Lincoln.

The bridegroom was graduated from Butte high school in 1950 and attended the University of Denver (Colo.). He has been serving in the navy for the past three years. He and his bride will make their home in San Diego, Calif., where he will have shore duty. They left for California Monday.
