Refreshments were served. Miss Marde Birmingham honored Miss Kathryn Judge Friday evening with a pre-nuptial shower held at the Town House.

Glenna Lou Strong Weds Albion Man

NORFOLK — The Methodist church in Norfolk was the scene of a wedding Sunday, September 4, at 8 p.m., when Miss Glenna Lou Strong of Lincoln, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Strong of Norfolk, formerly of O'Neill, became the bride of Lloyd Nay, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Nay of Albion.

Reverend Edgar officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with gold and bronze mums.

Robert Phigard of Lincoln sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Mr. Strong gave his daughter in marriage. The bride chose a waltz-length gown created of chantilly type lace and tulle. The neckline was encircled with ratural lace scallops and the molded sleeves taped to wrist tips. Beneath the tiny waist flared clouds of tulle gathered over a lace apron and her bouffant illusion veil was caught by a lace shell hat banded with satin and seed pearls. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Lawrence Stevens of Norfolk, sister of the bride, was matron-of-honor and Miss Jane McClellan of Lincoln and Mrs. Richard G. Nelson of O'Neill were bridesmaids. Little Andrea Wettlaufer, cousin of the bride, was flowergirl. The attendants appeared in identical gowns of neptune green taffeta. The softly draped bodice of the dresses featured a shell neckline and brief sleeves capped with narrow bands of taffeta. The full skirts flared to waltz-length. They carried colonial bouquets of gold and bronze chrysanthemums.

Bestman was Keith Bateman of Tilden. Ushers were Robert Phigard of Lincoln and Wayne Strong, brother of the bride.

The bridegroom and his attendants were attired in tuxedos with white jackets and wore white carnation boutonnières. Gary Wettlaufer, cousin of the bride, acted as ringbearer, also wore dark trousers and a white jacket.

Terry Strong and Norman Wettlaufer of Page, brother and cousin of the bride, were candlelighters. The bride's mother chose a gray dress with gray accessories and Mrs. Nay, mother of the bridegroom, chose a blue lace dress with black accessories. Each wore a pink carnation corsage.

The bride, who is employed by a Lincoln life insurance company, was graduated from the O'Neill high school. The bridegroom was graduated from the Albion high school and is a student at the University of Nebraska college of engineering.

For traveling the bride chose a blue and tan suit with tan accessories.

After a wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the couple will be at home at 1025 South 15th, Lincoln. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Punch was poured by Mrs. Allen Swenson of Lincoln. Cake was cut by Miss Ann Wouler of Lincoln. Mrs. Gerald Wettlaufer helped with the serving. Mrs. Kenneth Wettlaufer of Page and Shirley Ditterman opened the gifts. Mrs. Theodore Strong of O'Neill poured coffee and Mrs. Harriet Penner had charge of the guest book.

Those from O'Neill who attended the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Andy Wettlaufer, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Strong and son, Teddy, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Klingler and Mrs. Bessie Klingler. From Page: Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wettlaufer and sons, Norman and Danny. Mrs. Gerald Wettlaufer and son, Gary. Mr. and Mrs. George Wettlaufer and Andrea and Mrs. Louise Heese.

Clubbers Learn About 'Peace Gardens'

CHAMBERS—The Beautiful Valley Garden club met Tuesday, September 6, at the home of Mrs. Charles Spath. Fourteen members answered roll by telling of pests they had conquered and how.

Mrs. E. A. Farrier conducted the business session. Election of officers for the new year followed: Mrs. Vern Sageser, president; Mrs. T. E. Newhouse, vice-president; Mrs. James Platt, secretary; Mrs. H. W. Hubbard, treasurer, and Mrs. Ralph Rees news reporter.

A talk on "International Peace Gardens" was given by Mrs. George C. Smith. The Smith family visited these gardens in North Dakota last summer. They are located near the Canadian boundary, about 20 miles north of Dumseith, N.D. A portion of the gardens is in Canada and the other portion in the United States. Mrs. Ray Hoffman served refreshments. Next meeting will be October 4 at the home of Mrs. C. V. Robertson.
