Closson-Tomlinson Nuptials Are Read

The First Methodist church in O'Neill was the scene Sunday, September 18, of the wedding of Miss Viola Geraldine Closson, the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anson Closson of O'Neill, and Richard Edward Tomlinson, son of Richard L. Tomlinson of O'Neill and Doris Tomlinson of Denver, Colo.

Rev. Glenn Kennicott performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Harold Seger played the nuptial music and was accompanied for Mrs. Grant Peacock, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She selected a ballerina-length gown of monstery white, fashioned of chantilly type lace and nylon net over satin. A lace fichu contoured the strapless top of the molded bodice which featured a pleated net midriff. The exceedingly full skirt was composed of alternate can-can ruffles of lace and net. Completing her ensemble was a matching lace bolero with scalloped Peter Pan collar and long, fitted sleeves. Her elbow-length veil of imported bridal illusion was held by a queen's tiara of tiny pearls, rhinestones and sequins. She carried a bouquet of white carnations and red roses. Her jewelry was matching necklace, earrings and bracelet of cultured pearls.

Attending the bride was her cousin, Mrs. Lloyd Relf of Rapid City, S.D., who wore a ballerina-length gown of orchid net over taffeta. She carried a bouquet matching that of the bride. The bridegroom wore a navy blue pin stripe suit. Attending the bridegroom was Russell Closson, brother of the bride. He wore a gray suit. Ushers were Gene Closson and Gene Gillogly.

Mrs. Frank McKenny had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Edwin Burival had charge of the gifts. Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Olive Dexter baked and decorated the cake. Those serving were Nina Burival, Barbara Strong, Patty Grenier and Mavis Strong. Assisting were Mrs. Lloyd Whaley, Mrs. Floyd Sanders, Mrs. Oswald Babutske, Mrs. Clyde Streeter, Mrs. Albert Marsh and Mrs. Vern Grenier. The couple left Sunday evening for Lincoln where they will make their home. The bridegroom is a student at the University of Nebraska.

SERVING this COMMUNITY over TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

Sick & Injured Spectacular Fires Caused by Nature

was a fire near the C Bar M ranch, also at the L. B. Price, Howard McConnell and Dewey Schaffer ranches. Considerable hay was destroyed on a field operated jointly by Adamson and Tomlinson. Flames covered about a mile of ground there. Some hay was lost. A shower helped curb the flames. Atkinson firemen also were out. There were six fires in the Amelia community. A fire was reported on the Albert Lemmer ranch.

Motorists could see these fires breaking out on the horizon in many directions. The storm moved in from the west and left countless fires in the wake. Eight hundredths of an inch of rain fell here. Motorists arriving from the west reported spectacular fires raging at Valentine, Ainsworth and Bassett.

O'Neill firemen worked 'way into the night. There were four fires between Bartlett and the Chambers junction.

Holt Picnic Is Held
