5 Tons of Melon Served at Ewing

EWING—Five tons of watermelon was served free to the crowd on watermelon day in Ewing on Friday. The event was sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

Festivities began at 1:30 p.m. with a parade featuring the Ewing school band, the American Legion and auxiliary and Boy Scout troop. Many students from the grades were dressed in colorful costumes. An exhibition of square dancing was given on Main street under the direction of Mrs. Donna Carson, who was assisted by Mrs. Helen Grim, Mrs. Grace Thomson and Miss Margaret Catron.

Other entertainment included a donkey ball game between the business men and the farmers. The game was won by the farmers.

The evening program consisted of races for boys and girls, a slipper kicking contest for the girls and ladies, pie and watermelon eating contests.

Many received prizes in cash or trade from the Ewing business places when names were drawn.

Max Wanser and Delbert Stonebraker were masters of ceremonies. Ralph Munn is the president of the Chamber of Commerce.
