

Miss Carol Pruss
Weds Donald Keyes

The marriage of Miss Carol Pruss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Pruss of O'Neill, and Donald Keyes, son of Karl Keyes of Inman, was solemnized at an evening candlelight service Saturday, September 24, in the First Methodist church of O'Neill. Rev. Myron F. LaPoint of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints performed the double-ring ceremony.

Baskets of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums and white and yellow daisies stood on each side of the altar. Mrs. Harold Seger played the pre-nuptial organ music and accompanied Miss Imogene Davis, who sang "A Wedding Blessing" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was waltz-length of white imported chantilly lace and tulle. The fitted bodice was of lace over satin with a scalloped net yoke styled with a Peter Pan stand-up collar of lace. The long sleeves tapered to the traditional bridal points at the wrist. The bouffant skirt of double tulle over satin featured a wide panel insert of lace in the front. The bride's veil was fingertip length of silk illusion caught by a tiara of sequins and tiny seed pearls. She carried a cascade bouquet of Talisman roses with a built-in corsage for the bride's going away. Her only jewelry was two strands of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Attending the bride was her sister, Miss Verna Pruss of O'Neill, as maid-of-honor, and Miss Ardye Alton of Omaha, as bridesmaid. Their gowns were waltz-length. The maid-of-honor's gown was of champagne colored taffeta with net over skirt. The fitted bodice was of lace over taffeta. The bridesmaid's gown was of toast colored net over taffeta, fashioned with a fitted bodice. Both wore headpieces to match their gowns and rhinestone necklaces and earrings. They carried identical colonial bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums with talisman net and ribbon.

Attending the bridegroom were his brother-in-law, Robert Bergstrum of Worthington, Minn., as best man, and James Vidlak of Omaha as groomsman. The bridegroom and his attendants wore navy blue suits. The bridegroom's boutonniere was a talisman rose from the bride's bouquet.

Ushers were Marvin Rouse and Francis Anderl, both of Inman. Attendants and ushers wore white carnation boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue dress with white accessories.

Candlelighters were Mary Morsbach of Inman and Ricky Vidlak of Omaha. Miss Morsbach wore a gold taffeta waltz length gown, featuring puffed sleeves and a shirred scoop neckline. She wore a white velvet wristlet with bronze chrysanthemums.

Miss Lois Murray of O'Neill was in charge of the guest book. Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. Mrs. Robert Bergstrum and Mrs. James Vidlak were in charge of the gift table. Mrs. Roy Ries acted as hostess. Those serving were Karen and Sharon Hartrout, Lois Morsbach, Bonnie Banks and Jeanette Wolfe, assisted by Luetta Alton. Others helping with the reception were Vera Morsbach, Mabel Banks, Myrtle McGraw, Sadie Conger and Donna Rae Wolfe.

The bride has been employed with Howard Strong & Associates, architects of Norfolk. The bridegroom is a farmer in the Inman community. After their wedding trip to Niagara Falls, N. Y., and through the Eastern and Southern states, the couple will
