

Mrs. Cornelius Lloyd Murphy, the former Joan Frances Kallhoff... weds in September church rite.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Kallhoff - Murphy Nuptial Rites Read

Miss Joan Frances Kallhoff of O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kallhoff of O'Neill, and Cornelius Lloyd Murphy of Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Murphy of Stuart, were married Tuesday, September 27, in St. Patrick's Catholic church here. Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan officiated at the double-ring ceremony and nuptial high mass before an altar decorated with varicolored yellow gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a chapel-length gown of Alencon lace and nylon tulle over satin. Hand clipped scallops embroidered with simulated pearls and ice tinted sequins, contoured the jeweled neckline. The long, tapered sleeves were pointed at the wrists. The fitted lace bodice drifted into a full skirt, created of alternating panels of lace and tulle. An open plateau of ice-tinted sequins touched with seed pearls held her veil of illusion tulle. She carried an orchid with lilies of the valley and a pearl rosary on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Robert Schomer, sister of the bride, served as matron-of-honor. Misses Patricia and Bernice Kallhoff, sisters of the bride, were bridesmaids. All wore dresses styled identically, the matron-of-honor wearing gold and the bridesmaids green. The ballerina-length full skirts were fashioned with tiered ruffles of net edged with taffeta. The lace boleros featured Queen Ann collars. They carried colonial bouquets of bronze chrysanthemums.

Sharon Kallhoff, sister of the bride, and Rita Murphy, sister of the bridegroom, were junior bridesmaids. They wore gowns of gold net and taffeta. All the attendants wore matching headbands.

Johnny Murphy, brother of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. Frank Murphy was bestman. Henry Murphy and James Murphy served as groomsmen. All are brothers of the bridegroom. Thomas Kaup of Stuart and Raymond Kallhoff of Elgin were ushers.

Following the ceremony, a dinner was served for the relatives. A reception for two hundred guests was held. Vases of gladioli and crystal candleholders flanked the three-tier wedding cake which centered the bride's table. Other decorations were in the bride's colors of bronze and green.

Mildred Kallhoff, Mary Vitt, Mary Boyle, Ita Bauld, Mary Cooper and Marie Salisbury served. Maxine Ackles had charge of the guest book.

For traveling, the bride chose a dress and coat ensemble of charcoal brown trimmed with black with black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet as a corsage.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill high school with the class of 1951 and has been employed by Consumers Public Power district. The bridegroom was graduated from St. Mary's academy with the class of 1951 and has served two years in the army.

Thorson Dwelling Hit by Lightning

ROCK FALLS—Orville Thorson's house was struck by lightning on the morning of Tuesday, September 20, and the blaze was getting a good start in the attic when Gordon Johnson came along enroute to the ranch.

He saved the building from burning by climbing to the top, cutting a hole in the roof and pouring in water from pails handed up by those on the ground.

Other Rock Falls News

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scarborough of Palmer visited at the Floyd Johnson home from September 18 to 22. They were enroute to Washington state and Oregon with several stops planned. Mr. Scarborough is a cousin of Mrs. Johnson.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Tesch, sr., were Saturday evening visitors at the Albert Witfeldt home.

The highlight in the news continues to be the weather, only a different version, i.e., rain—gentle, soaking rains—in place of hot wind and dust. Even though the first rain came a week ago, it's still good news.

The neighbors gathered on the evening of Wednesday, September 21 and surprised the Orville Miller family. Pitch was played at seven tables. High scores were won by Elwin Grutsch and Mrs. James McNulty; lows by Ardell Curran and Fred Ernst. The group presented the family some luggage as a going-away gift. The Miller family is having a sale this week and will leave for Weaver-ville, Calif., soon.

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Brown were Mr. and Mrs. Austin Hynes of O'Neill and Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hynes and children of Portland, Ore. The group had supper and spent the evening at the Don Hynes home.

Mrs. Lyle Vequist and her sister, Mrs. James McNulty, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kimbrough on Saturday afternoon at the Mark Schelkopf home in O'Neill. Mrs. Kirbrough, who is a sister of Mr. Schelkopf, resided here with her family in recent years. They moved to Geneva from Holt county.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Peterson of Amelia were Sunday, September 18, visitors at the James Curran home.

Stray dogs brought old friends together on Friday when Robert Martens and son, Bob, of Atkinson had dinner and spent most of the day at the Floyd Johnson home visiting and discussing bygone days as old friends usually do over another cup of coffee. They came for the purpose of getting a couple stray yearlings and were assisted in the roundup by Floyd, Gordon and Linda.

Mr. and Mrs. James Curran and Ardell were Saturday evening guests at the home of John Grutsch, sr. Other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Claude Kimbrough.

Friday evening guests at the Don Hynes home were Mr. and Mrs. Duane Anson and girls and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and boys.

Norman and Barbara Taylor spent Wednesday night, September 21, with Terry and Cindy Brown.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schultz and daughters were Wednesday evening, September 21, guests at the Sam Derickson home. It must be a long time between visits when folks need a map to find the way to a friends house.

Clen Benson of Norfolk and Mr. Mathis of Lincoln were Friday visitors at the Blake Benson home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Yantzie and children were Friday evening callers at the Levi Yantzie home. Monday, September 19, supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sterns were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Curran and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Vequist and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Derickson and children were Sunday dinner guests at the Elroy Lieb home in O'Neill.

The Lou Brown family, Norman and Barbara Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scarborough enjoyed the slide pictures shown by Gordon Johnson at the home of his parents Wednesday night, September 21.

John Richardson called at the Sam Derickson home Wednesday evening, September 21.

Mr. and Mrs. George Calkins were Sunday dinner guests at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Benson and Stanley ate Sunday dinner at the Hugh Benson home. Little Miss Beth came home with her grandparents.

Tuesday, September 20, visitors at the John Schultz home were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Johnson and Linda and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Scarborough.

Dinner guests at the Sam Derickson home Sunday, September 18, included Mr. and Mrs. William Claussen and Mr. and Mrs. Levi Yantzie.

Linda Johnson spent Monday evening at the Lloyd Gallagher home. It seems there was a very uneven score in the card games played, which will have to be revised at a later date.

Mr. and Mrs. Orville Thorson were Tuesday afternoon, September 20, callers at the William Claussen home.

Orville Miller and Marvin Johnson were Sunday morning coffee guests at the Floyd Johnson home. Orville, in the interest of coon hounds, and Marvin, a grandfather's clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Vequist and children of Omaha spent Saturday and Sunday at the Henry Vequist home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Claussen were Monday evening callers at the John Grutsch, sr., home in O'Neill.
