Club-Owned Theater, Dance Floor Flourish

PAGE—Idleness is a word not in the vocabulary of the Women's Improvement club of Page. Its projects range from renovating a movie theater to providing an outdoor dance floor.

The theater was one of the club's major projects. The Page theater, a converted drug store, was not a money-making venture for the former owners. Then the improvement club took it over, paid the back taxes and all indebtedness. Since then the theater has never failed to pay expenses.

The projector was replaced and the theater was redecorated. The members of the club did as much of the work as was possible. Then some of the local businessmen helped get it ready for a business.

A few years later the club was able to furnish new lights, a new curtain and a complete renovation of the building including a fresh coat of paint and a new sign.

The theater now has a sizeable bank deposit to prove the soundness of the venture. It has been turned over to the Commercial club as a thriving business.

The park improvement was another big project. When the club members started in the park was an expanse of sandbars and weeds. Trees were planted. Two fireplaces were built. Picnic tables and playground equipment were provided. A fountain was built.

Later a light pole was erected.

When Ralph Brostrom was superintendent of schools he asked for the nearly impossible—new uniforms for the Page band. The club donated $50, approximately the price of one suit.

This started the drive. Help came from unexpected quarters and the suits were provided.

Out of their funds, club members fed 53 Saddle club members who put on a show for free day. They sponsored the parade, and they took care of the Christmas treats.

To raise money for these projects, the members served a lunch

800 - 1,000 Cattle Today

For the regular weekly sale to be held today (Thursday) the O'Neill Livestock Market expects to have from 800 to 1,000 head of cattle. The sale will consist mainly of yearling and 2-year-old butcher cattle.

The feature of the sale will be 100 head of yearling heifers from the Putnam ranch. These are exceptional quality open heifers weighing around 700 pounds. There will also be several loads of yearling steers besides the usual run of part loads and mixed consignments.

Another special calf sale will be held on Friday, October 7, consisting of from 800 to 1,000 calves. These calves give promise of being of excellent quality throughout.

Plan to attend both these sales at the O'Neill Livestock Market.

Dolores I. Doolittle Fall Bride at Amelia

AMELIA—St. Joseph's Catholic church at Amelia was the scene of a pretty wedding at 10 a.m., Monday, October 3, when Miss Dolores Irene Doolittle, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Athur Doolittle of Amelia, became the bride of Charles Ray Gartner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gartner of Lincoln.

Rev. Francis Price of Emmet, church pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with autumn flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of white, embroidery net over satin with Elizabethan neckline and long tapered sleeves. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught by a sequined sweetheart crown. She carried a colonial bouquet of long roses and baby chrysanthemums.

Matron-of-honor was her sister, Mrs. Robert Adair, who wore a waltz length gown of deep blue net and net over satin. She carried a colonial bouquet of blue and white carnations.

The bestman, Robert Rurup of Lincoln, and the bridegroom were attired in light grey business suits. Both wore white carnation boutonnieres.

A dinner and reception was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately following the ceremony. Donna Peterson, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling, Mrs. Gartner chose a princess style gown of dark brown trimmed in white Angora and wore accessories of avocado and wore red rose corsage.

Mrs. Gartner taught in Holt and Garfield rural schools the past five years. Mr. Gartner is employed as a patrolman and has been stationed at Columbus the past year.

After a short wedding trip, the Gartner will make their home at South Sioux City.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Tesch of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gartner of Lincoln and Donna Peterson of Lexington.

The improvement club has a rule of not doing a thing until it has funds to bear the expense. And then the members willingly do the work.
