Mr. and Mrs. John A. Barnes... the bride is the former Patricia Wewel. (Story at right)—O'Neill Photo Co.

Wewel-Barnes Rites Read in New Church

ATKINSON—In nuptial rites performed Saturday morning, October 8, in the new St. Joseph's Catholic church here, Miss Patricia M. Wewel became the bride of A/3c John A. Barnes. Rev. Richard J. Parr, church pastor, officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alouis Wewel and the bridegroom is the son of Mrs. Ruth Barnes, all of Atkinson.

Mrs. William Noziska was soloist, with organ accompaniment by Miss Leona Kilmurry. Both are from Atkinson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of net and lace, fashioned with a lace bodice with a high neckline and pointed collar. The long sleeves tapered to points at the wrists, and the bodice was fastened in the back with lace-covered buttons. The full nylon skirt was complimented with lace side insets and lace points from the bodice. The front skirt panel was of pleated nylon. Her nylon veil was held by a headpiece of flat ruffled nylon tiers trimmed with rhinestones and pearls. She carried pink carnations.

Miss Mary Catherine Jansen was maid-of-honor. Her gown of yellow net was fashioned with a strapless fitted bodice and a full ruffled skirt.

Misses Paula and Patty Strong, both of Omaha, nieces of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. Their gowns of lavender and green were fashioned like that of the maid-of-honor. The attendants wore white nylon trimmed shirred jackets and gloves and carried bouquets of daisies.

Donald Bouscha was bestman. Michael Schaaaf and Larry Schaaaf, nephews of the bridegroom, were groomsmen. Fred L. Barnes of Omaha and Michael Coday of Atkinson ushered.

Miss Nancy Ziska had charge of the guest book.

After a wedding trip the couple will live in Houston, Tex., where the bridegroom is stationed with the air force.
