Miss Mary Coleman Weds Lt. Henderson

(Photo at right)
ATKINSON—The First Presbyterian church was the scene of a wedding Sunday, October 16, when Miss Mary Coleman of Atkinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Coleman of Atkinson, became the bride of Lt. Jerry D. Henderson of Stuart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Henderson of Stuart.

The Jerry Hendersons . . . to reside at Santa Ana, Calif. —O'Neill Photo Co.

Rev. F. F. Payas, church pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony at 2 p.m., before an altar decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums and pom-poms. Harold and Garold Frickel, twin nephews of the bride, served as candlelighters.
 The soloist, Gene Tooker, sang "Blessed Assurance" and "Wedding Prayer," accompanied by Mrs. William Schorn.
 The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of imported lace complimented with tulle. Long, tapering sleeves and a shell neckline traced with sequin-touched lace rosettes designed the fitted bodice. Yards of tulle created the bouffant skirt which was accented by lace panels, attached at the waist, which flared to skirt length. A scalloped lace cloche outlined with tulle ruching and pearls held the soft folds of her illusion veiling. She carried an orchid on a white Bible and wore a strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.
 The maid-of-honor, Jane Henderson, sister of the bridegroom, and the bridesmaids, the Misses Onie McClurg and Phyllis Rzeszotarski, friends of the bride, appeared in identically styled frocks of crystalline fantasy green and raspberry tones. The draped portrait necklines were contoured with sunbursts of petite pleats which were repeated in a spray down the front of the extremely flared skirts.
 Bonnie Mackel, niece of the bride, was flower girl. Wayne Henderson, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.
 Rex Coffman, friend of the bridegroom, served as bestman. Ushers were Don Downs of Harrisburg, friend of the bridegroom, and Daryl Beckwith of Emmet, cousin of the bride.
 The men wore dark blue business suits with carnation boutonnieres.
 The mother of the bride wore a navy dress with navy accessories. The bridegroom's mother appeared in a dapper blue suit with matching accessories.
 A reception was held in the church parlor following the wedding ceremony. The Misses Delene Shorman, Bernice Twiestmeyer, friends of the bride, Doralee Henderson, cousin of the bridegroom and Mrs. Roy Henderson, grandmother of the bridegroom, served.

Mrs. Gene Tooker, sister of the bride, was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. C. E. Johnson of Waverly and Miss Ruth Rhodes of Stuart presided at the gift table.
 The bride chose a black wool suit with orange flecks and black and orange accessories for going away. The couple will reside at Santa Ana, Calif., near the Marine air base where the groom will be stationed for the next eight months.

Mrs. Henderson is a graduate of Atkinson high school with the class of 1951. She has been employed the past two and a half years in Lincoln. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi, cultural sorority.
 Lt. Henderson was graduated from Stuart high school in 1949. He attended Doane college at Crete for three years where he was affiliated with Alpha Omega fraternity. He has been in the service the past three and a half years, having just served 14 months in Korea.
