Sick & Injured

PAGE—Harvey Cullen, who contracted spinal meningitis about six weeks ago, was taken to O'Neill to St. Anthony's hospital Saturday with a brain abscess. On Sunday he was transferred to an Omaha hospital where he submitted to surgery that evening. His wife and sister, Mrs. Dale Stuke of Norfolk, accompanied him in the ambulance. Another sister, Mrs. Harold Heiss, and his son, Dale Cullen, also went to Omaha to be with him. The Joe Coenan and John Sorensen families were victims of a stomach flu the past week. Ernest McIntosh of Wakefield, son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wilson, is hospitalized in the Methodist hospital at Sioux City with a half-broken neck. He has worn a brace but it has been found necessary to place his neck in a cast. He was loading hogs for shipment by truck and slipped and received the severe neck injury. Mrs. Arnold Tikalsky submitted to surgery Thursday morning at the Lutheran hospital, Norfolk. Mr. Tikalsky and sons visited her Sunday and reported her condition as satisfactory.

The Roy Hanson family went to Omaha Wednesday evening, October 26, where they visited relatives until Sunday, when they visited his mother at the Lutheran hospital at Norfolk. Her condition is improved but she will be hospitalized for some time. Mrs. Robert Van Horn and infant son, Alan Mark, returned to their home at Page Sunday from Sioux City where they had been hospitalized. Mrs. Roy Zeller went to Omaha on Sunday to care for the family of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. King, who is hospitalized. Mrs. Lowell Miller and Mrs. Melvin Carson went to Ainsworth on Tuesday evening in response to word that their father, Walt Snyder, had collapsed at a lodge meeting. He was taken directly to the hospital by ambulance. His condition was "questionable" on Tuesday evening.

AMELIA—Mr. and Mrs. George Fullerton, Dale and Phyllis, his daughter, and infant son, Alan Mark, returned to their home at Page Sunday from Sioux City where they had been hospitalized. Mrs. Roy Zeller went to Omaha on Sunday to care for the family of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. King, who is hospitalized. Mrs. Lowell Miller and Mrs. Melvin Carson went to Ainsworth on Tuesday evening in response to word that their father, Walt Snyder, had collapsed at a lodge meeting. He was taken directly to the hospital by ambulance. His condition was "questionable" on Tuesday evening.

RIVERSIDE—Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Conner were in Norfolk Wednesday visiting their son, Orville. He has been under the doctor's care. Mrs. Robert Montgomery was a guest at the Seek and Share project club which was held at the Don Larson home Tuesday afternoon. David Shrader had misfortune of sitting in some Clorox on the floor, burning his legs. His burns are nearly healed now. Clay Babcock was taken sick early Wednesday, October 26. His condition is about the same.

O'NEILL—Mrs. Maggie Siders called her son, Everett, long distance on Monday. She learned he had been released from the hospital at Douglas, Wyo., and transferred to the hospital at Casper, Wyo. He is under the care of a bone specialist because his collarbone has not been healing satisfactorily following a tractor accident in which he was involved three weeks ago. Everett is expected to return to his home in O'Neill soon.
