

California Vows for O'Neill Girl, Groom from Dublin

St. Basil's Catholic church in Los Angeles, Calif., was the scene of the Saturday, October 15, wedding of Miss Loretta O'Malley, daughter of Mrs. Lawrence O'Malley of O'Neill, and John L. Hargaden of Compton, Calif., son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hargaden of Dublin, Ireland. Rev. Donald Mulcahy of St. Basil's Catholic church performed the 10 o'clock ceremony.

The bride appeared in a gown of ivory satin. The bouffant skirt featured inserts of imported French lace. She carried a bouquet of Stephanota and a white orchid.

Matron-of-honor was Mrs. James Goggin, sister of the bride. Christopher O'Shea served as best-man.

Following the ceremony a breakfast was held in the Lido room of the Ambassador hotel in Los Angeles. After a trip to Santa Barbara, Carmel and San Francisco, Calif., the couple will be at home at 835 E. 46th St., Bixby Knolls, Long Beach, Calif.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy in O'Neill. Mr. Hargaden is a graduate of Westland Row Christian Brothers college at Dublin, Ireland.

Ivan Heiss Heads Holt Farm Bureau

PAGE—The new officers of the Holt county farm bureau took office last Thursday evening at the first meeting of the new year. They are: Ivan Heiss, president; Alfons Beelaert, vice-president; and Dale Stauffer, secretary and treasurer.

The meeting was held at district 57 or the Wood school.

The resolutions adopted at the Neigh meeting of the Antelope farm bureau, attended by Ivan Heiss, Merwyn French, jr., and Dale Stauffer, were read and discussed.

Ivan Heiss and Mike Williamson were chosen as delegates to attend the state convention at Lincoln November 14, 15 and 16.

It is intended that the local, county, state and national government departments in which the farm bureau has an interest shall hear its opinions and that the opinions may have some influence on legislation. Mrs. Ralph Larson, chairman of the women's division, was in charge of the lunch arrangements. Plans were made to meet with the farm bureau of the south half of Holt county to organize a Holt county farm bureau instead of being a unit of the Antelope county division.

Miss Mildred Crabb, who is attending Wayne State Teachers college, spent the weekend visiting relatives in O'Neill.
