

Rock Falls News

Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Duane Sanders were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Sanders and Melvin and Mr. and Mrs. Clouse. Supper guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vequist.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Seger and children and Ralph Seger at Atkinson were Sunday visitors at the Donald Sterns home.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Druceke and family called on Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes on Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Brown and children visited friends in Royal on Sunday.

Mrs. Floyd Johnson spent Friday night with Mrs. John Schultz while the men folk were on a con hunt. It was an unsuccessful hunt, however, due to lack of moisture, the dogs are unable to follow a trail, but they are in good shape and eager to get started at some real hunting.

Austin Hynes and Ed Bush were dinner guests on Monday at the Floyd Johnson home. Mr. Bush, a cattle buyer from Iowa, purchased a load of calves belonging to Floyd and Gordon Johnson and John Schultz. The remainder of their calves were sold at the Atkinson calf sale on Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes and Lynda called at the Oswald Druceke home on Sunday afternoon.

A good deed for the day — A neighbor turns into the yard and parks their car (which has seen many miles of Dusty roads) near by as the lady of the house is vacuuming hers, and when finished proceeds to give theirs the once-over also.

The Lyle Vequist family were Saturday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Sterns.

Earl Rodman and son, Jim, were Sunday callers at the James Curran home.

Randy and Peggy, children of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Curran visited with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. James Curran from Monday until Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Turner and Betty Jo of O'Neill called on Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vequist Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Lieb and family were November 6 visitors at the Sam Derickson home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Claussen visited Sunday in Bristow at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Druceke.

Mrs. Lyle Vequist was a Sunday morning caller at the home of her mother, Mrs. Celia Grutsch.

Mr. and Mrs. George Calkins called at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Don Hynes on Saturday evening.

Henry Vequist and Ardell Curran went to Sioux City early Monday morning to the livestock sale. They had hogs and cattle to be sold there, which had been trucked down Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Blake Benson, accompanied by Glen Benson of Norfolk, went to South Dakota on Saturday, returning Monday. They visited their brother, Jess Benson, who has been in rather "poor" health recently.

Fertilization Talk Heard at Meeting

INMAN—The Inman Community club met Monday evening, October 31, at the school house for their regular meeting. President Walter Fick was in charge of the meeting. After the report of the standing committees M. E. Brouse of Lincoln gave a talk on "Fertilization of Native Meadows" and showed colored slides that were taken in this area, all of which proved to be "very interesting".

Sandwiches, cake and coffee was served at the close of the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Siders and Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Tompkins were coffee hosts.

Mr. Brouse was a guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Siders during his stay here.

Other Inman News

Miss Abbie Hanley entertained the Coffee club at her home on Thursday. A covered dish luncheon was enjoyed by the group at noon and social time.

Mrs. Linelle Butterfield entertained a group of friends at her home on Friday afternoon at a party. Mrs. Hesse Butterfield served refreshments at the close of the afternoon.

Mrs. James R. Coventry accompanied her mother, Mrs. H. W. Tomlinson and her sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary Tomlinson, both of O'Neill and her sister, Mrs. William Turner, of Chambers to Norfolk on Wednesday.

Mrs. Harvey Tompkins, Linelle and Neal drove to Utica on Wednesday where they spent the day visiting Mrs. Tompkins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Caldwell. They returned home the same evening.

Herbert Nielsen left Wednesday morning for Gillette, Wyo., where he will spend a few days visiting relatives and calling on old friends. The Nielsen family formerly lived in Wyoming.

Andrew Jensen of Norfolk was a guest on Thursday in the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Gannon. Mr. Jensen was on his way to Eugene, Ore., where he will visit for a while.

Halle and John Halstead of Orchard were Inman visitors on Friday. The Halsteads formerly lived here.

Mrs. Charles A. Tompkins of Omaha and Mrs. Elsie Short of Mt. Vernon, Wash., arrived here on Wednesday evening and spent until Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Tompkins. They also called on many old friends here as both Mrs. Tompkins and Mrs. Short are daughters of the late Mr. and Mrs. Jason Gifford, who resided here for many years.

Elsie and Clayton Kruegar were Neligh visitors on Saturday.

Mrs. Mae Winters, Mrs. Sue Matthews and Emory Ek returned to their home in Independence, Mo., on Wednesday after spending several days visiting in the home of their sister-in-law and aunt, Mrs. Jennie Crosser. They also visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller.
