Tigers End with Perfect Record

EWING — The Ewing Tigers scored another victory Friday night when they defeated the Creighton high Bulldogs, 42-7 on the Ewing grid.

Ewing, which has not lost a home game in two years, now has won 16 straight. The Tigers' last defeat was dealt at Bassett in the opening game of 1954.

Dorrence Hobbs made Ewing's first touchdown against Creighton on a three-yard drive through the center. Bob Hobbs plowed off tackle for the extra point. Sonny Carl ripped off tackle for 56 yards for the Tigers' second counter and then took a pitchout for the extra point.

Dorrence Hobbs ran around end for 39 yards for Ewing's third touchdown and Jack Sisson plunged for the extra point, making the score 21-0 at half time. Ewing was on the six-inch line when the half ended.

Creighton scored its only touchdown in the third period when Gary Groeling dashed off tackle. Mitteis plunged for the extra tally to make the score 21-7.

Bob Hobbs took a pitchout and dashed 68 yards for a Ewing TD in the third period. Dorrence Hobbs plunged for the extra point. Bob Hobbs scored the next counter on a 20-yard run off tackle and Sisson booted the extra

Helen Kuehl, soloist, was accompanied by Donald Rolfs. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of tulle and lace. The fitted bodice was designed with an illusion yoke and a lace collar trimmed with sequins. The lace sleeves were long and tapered to points at the wrists. The nylon skirt featured scroll applique and formed a short train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of sequins and pearls. She carried a white prayer book with white streamers and a white orchid and lilies of the valley.

Miss Marion Moore was maid of honor. Miss Ann Merrit was bridesmaid. They wore identical cotillion blue ballerina length gowns. The elongated torso bodice featured V necklines with draped yokes forming the capped sleeves. They wore matching mitts and headbands and carried bouquets of blue and white carnations.

Donna and Carolyn Moore were candlelighters. Ringbearers were Tom and Lee Timm.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Robert Doll, jr., and Gene Denker. All wore dark suits. Ushers were Jerry Coburn and Lloyd Rohwer. The reception was in charge of

Mrs. Clifford Custer. For traveling, the bride wore a grey dress with black accessories. The couple will reside at 3015
