Elsie Peter Weds Ralph L. Adair

(Photo at right.) St. Patrick's Catholic church in O'Neill was the scene of a wedding Monday, November 21, when Miss Elsie Peter of O'Neill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Peter of O'Neill, became the bride of Ralph L. Adair of Amelia, son of Mrs. Gertrude Adair of Amelia. Rev. Thomas Hitch performed the 9 o'clock ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a floor-length gown of hand-clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle. The strapless bodice was topped by a fitted lace Eton jacket featuring long sleeves ending in points at the wrists. The skirt was of alternating ruffles of lace and tulle. She wore a fingertip veil of imported illusion held in place by a cap of chantilly lace trimmed with seed pearls. The bride's bouquet of white carnations was presented to the Blessed Mother. The bride also carried a white prayer book topped with a white carnation.

Both Protect You... AN ACT TO REGULATE COMMERCE Both Are Modern! Your rights and privileges as an American citizen are protected by the Constitution, a unique and magnificent document whose principles are as sound today as when written, over 150 years ago. Through the years, amendments have been added to keep the Constitution up-to-date. The same is true of the regulatory powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Congress has enacted more than 150 amendments to the Interstate Commerce Act since it was passed in 1887, completely overhauling it twice. In principle, present ICC regulations governing the various transportation systems are pertinent, constructive, and modern in concept.
