Walter Smith, Wife Married 50 Years

No Reception Because of Illness

STUART—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Smith quietly observed their 50th wedding anniversary Tuesday, November 22, at their home in Stuart.

Due to Mrs. Smith's declining health, plans for the celebration which had been anticipated, were given up.

Walter Smith of Logan, Ia., and Grace Francisco of Missouri Valley, Ia., were reared in their respective communities.

It was when Miss Francisco was teaching school in Mr. Smith's home district the couple became acquainted. They were later married at Council Bluffs, Ia., on November 22, 1905.

On the following December 15 they came to Stuart and have spent all the time since in Stuart and vicinity except for one year spent in Keya Paha county.

They farmed in the Sand Creek neighborhood for a time and Mr. Smith, still a farmer at heart, makes a daily trip to his farm 3½ miles northeast of town. The place is now occupied by their son, Walter, jr., also known as "Skip."

Mr. Smith has served as county supervisor and at present is serving on the town board of trustees.

The Smiths are the parents of six children—Miss Marguerite, Mrs. Donald (Pauline) Schafer, Walter, jr., all of Stuart; Mrs. Ernie (Grace) Smith of Bassett and Mrs. Fred (Jane) Frater of Coatsville, Pa.

One daughter, Gladys, died at 2-years-old. They have 10 grandchildren.

Inman News

The Inman Commercial club met Monday evening at the Coffee Shop for a 7 o'clock dinner which was followed by the regular business meeting. Plans were made to help Santa with his treats again this year.

The Inman Workers Project club met Wednesday, November 16, for a regular meeting at the country home of Mrs. Melvin Lorenz. The group enjoyed a luncheon at noon. (Mrs. K. F. Smith was in charge of the business session after which a lesson on "glamorizing leftovers" was presented by Mrs. H. E. Smith. The December meeting will be held at the home of Miss Elsie Kruegar and will be the Christmas lesson and Christmas party.

The Inman WSCS met Thursday afternoon at the Methodist church for a special meeting due to the fact that Thanksgiving falls on their regular meeting day. Mrs. Melvin Lorenz, president, was in charge of the meeting and the society made plans to purchase new carpet for the church chancel. A no-host lunch was served.

The Young Adult Fellowship of the Methodist church met Thursday evening in the church. President Donald Keyes was in charge. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Keyes showed slides taken on their wedding trip which took them to Chicago, Niagara Falls, Ontario, Canada, New York, State of Liberty, Matamoros, Pa. and Washington D.C. Lunch was served.

Mr. and Mrs. K. F. Smith recently entertained the Inman school board and their wives at their country home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Stevens of Page were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. James M. McMahon on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo P. Mossman left Friday for Lawrence, Kans., where they will spend a month visiting in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Gillahan and family.

Don Kelley, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kelley, who attends Norfolk Junior college in Norfolk, spent the weekend in the home of his parents. Don made the "first 10" in the tryout for basketball at the college.

Tuttle, Tomlinson Among Enlistees

The following recent army enlistments at the O'Neill recruiting station, announced by Sfc. James R. Lyons, include:

Rollin Tuttle of Ewing, for engineer equipment and maintenance school; Derold D. Keys of Purdum, for helicopter maintenance school; Bernard J. Way of Bassett, for helicopter repair school; Melvin J. Jensen of Wausa, for helicopter repair school; John L. Mullins of Plainview, for welding school; George F. Tomlinson of O'Neill, for airplane mechanic school.

Selecting branch assignment in the army were:

Floyd P. Myers of Elmore, for ordnance corps; Harry E. Sage, jr. of Niobrara and Kenneth F. Sage of Bloomfield, both for the signal corps.

Sergeant Lyons said the group went to Camp Chaffee, Ark., for processing, training and reassignment.
