Holt's Oldest Resident Is 104

Mrs. Joseph Axteff (above), who when she was a small girl was told to go west for her health, Friday observed her 104th birthday anniversary. The day was spent quietly at her home in Stuart. She received a number of friends. Mrs. Axteff is Holt county's oldest resident. Due to Mrs. Axteff's declining health and increasing need for rest and quiet, no celebration was planned. She was born in New York state in 1851, moved to Iowa when she was a young girl, came to Nebraska in 1880. Mr. Axteff died in 1911. She resides with her daughter, Miss Pearl.—The Frontier Photo.

Ewing Gridders Feted at Dinner

EWING—Coach Richard Lane and his undefeated Ewing high school footballers were honored guests of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening, November 22, at the school auditorium. Other guests were Mrs. Lane and Supt. and Mrs. L. M. Carter. One hundred twenty-five were present for the 6:30 o'clock turkey dinner with trimmings.

Rev. P. F. Burke gave the invocation. M. B. Huffman was master of ceremonies. Guest speaker was Barney Lewellyn, football coach of Wayne State Teachers college. Coach Lane also gave a talk and presented letters to 26 players.

Other numbers on the program included a vocal selection by a trio composed of Janell Hoke, Patsy Pollock and Ruth Ann Scott, with Miss Marilyn Finley at the piano. A trumpet quartet, including Director Eugene Kresl, Paul Gunter, Jerome Baum and Bennie Taylor, played a selection. Auxiliary members assisted with the preparation and serving the dinner.

Landrum-Doolittle Nuptial Vows Read

AMELIA—Mrs. Gloria Landrum, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Blake Ott, and Clinton Doolittle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doolittle, were married Sunday, November 27, at 12:30 p.m., at the Methodist church in Amelia. Rev. J. M. Hodgkin, pastor, performed the single-ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with white cathedral candles and autumn flowers.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a knitted suit of aqua wool with beige and black accessories. Her only jewelry was a pair of rhinestone earrings, a gift from the bridegroom. Her corsage was of white carnations and lilies of the valley.

The matron-of-honor, Mrs. Clyde Doolittle, wore a knitted suit of steel blue wool with beige accessories. Her corsage was of yellow mums. Little Sally Landrum, daughter of the bride, was flowergirl and her dress was of bluish pink crystalline. She carried a nosegay of pink roses.

Billie Doolittle, nephew of the bridegroom, wore a light blue suit and carried the ring on a satin pillow. Clyde Doolittle served as best-man for his brother. Both men wore dark business suits.

Rochelle Sammons and Joan Fullerton lighted the candles. Rochelle played a piano prelude to the ceremony and the nuptial music. Donald Adams, cousin of the bride, sang "Because." Bill Sammons and Tommie Doolittle served as ushers.

The mother of the bride wore black, with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a brown ensemble. Both mothers wore corsages of bronze mums.

Immediately following the ceremony dinner was served to wedding party at the home of the bride's parents, Mrs. Edith Andersen and Mrs. Asa Watson assisted.

A reception was held from 2 until 4 o'clock at the newlyweds' ranch home. Mrs. Tommie Doolittle had charge of the serving, assisted by Mrs. Marvin Doolittle, Mrs. Robert Adair, Mrs. Darrel Slaymaker and Miss Nancy Watson.

Mrs. Andrew Robak of Omaha had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Arlene Tibbets of O'Neill served the wedding cake. Mrs. Harold Fullerton had charge of the guest-book. One hundred twenty-five guests signed the book.

Mrs. Doolittle has been employed as secretary to Dr. James Ramsay in Atkinson. Mr. Doolittle has been engaged in ranching and after a short honeymoon they will make their home on their ranch north of Amelia.

Fellowship Group in Thanksgiving Dinner

PAGE—Members of the Fellowship Sunday-school class and their families met Tuesday evening at the church basement for their annual Thanksgiving dinner together. The program consisted of a reading by Mrs. Harold Heiss, an instrumental duet by Bette French and Faye Rutherford, reading by Mrs. R. F. Park, vocal solo by Helen Finch, accompanied by Bette French. Ruth Evelyn Mewmaw sang "Bless This House" and was her own accompanist. Rev. Mewmaw closed with a few remarks. Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge made a plea in the interest of muscular dystrophy funds for research purposes.

Election of officers followed. Mrs. Merwyn French was elected president, Mrs. Jesse Kelly, re-elected vice-president and Mrs. J. W. Finch will serve the second year as secretary and treasurer. Harley Kennedy was elected teacher with Mrs. R. F. Park as substitute teacher.

The decision was made to continue with the MCOR program for the third year, and it is hoped that more families will contribute to the fund.

Mrs. Edgar Stauffer presented a bill for $1.39 for incidental expenses for the supper. The serving committee included: Mrs. Harry Harper, Mrs. Herbert Steinberg, Mrs. Jesse Kelly, Mrs. Edgar Stauffer and Mrs. Elmer Trowbridge, served the dinner.
