

Yvonne Mlnarik, Cletus Thramer Wed in Church Rite

EWING—Miss Yvonne Mlnarik, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Mlnarik of Ewing, became the bride of Cletus Thramer, son of Joseph Thramer, Tuesday, November 15, at 9 a.m., in Clearwater.

Rev. Alfred Hoising officiated at the double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with bouquets of chrysanthemums.

Soloist was Robert Koenig of Ewing, who sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day, Oh Beautiful Mother." Mrs. Mark Sehi accompanied him.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of imported, hand-clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle. It was designed with a small collar and a fitted bodice that buttoned down the back. The full skirt was worn over a hoop and was fashioned with a deep peplum of tulle banded with lace, ending in a train. Her fingertip veil of imported French illusion was attached to a crown covered with seed pearls, sequins and rhinestones. She carried a cascade bouquet of red roses.

Mrs. Sam Stearns was matron-of-honor for her sister. She wore a strapless, floor-length gown of yellow net with a matching lace jacket. Miss Clarabel Mlnarik, sister of the bride, wore an orchid gown, identical to that of the matron-of-honor. Their bouquets were of carnations.

Bestman was J. Alex Thramer and groomsmen was Mark Thramer. Both are brothers of the bridegroom.

Miss Jodine Funk, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl. She wore a gown of net over taffeta featuring rows of tiny ruffles and bands of taffeta. She carried a basket of orchids and yellow chrysanthemums.

Thomas Mlnarik, brother of the bride, was ring bearer. He carried the rings on a white heart-shaped pillow.

Sam Stearns and Ludwig Tagel were ushers.

A three-course dinner was served in the church parlors at noon for 75 relatives and friends.

The bride's table was centered with a three-tier cake which was baked by Mrs. Carl Thiele. It was cut by Mrs. Clarence Funk, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Frank Mlnarik, aunt of the bride, poured. Assisting with the dinner were Mesdames Rudy Funk, Clarence Shavlik, Frank Bohn, Ralph Tomjack, Wayne Paul, Cletus Muff, George Walters, Frank Miller, William Sehi and Earl Schindler. It was served by Misses Sharon Rotherham, Maxine Noffke, Frances Noffke, Irene Kaczor, Jolyene Kaczor, Donna Mlnarik, Kay Rotherham and Beverly Rotherham.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the church with 200 guests present. Mrs. Robert Walnofer was in charge of the guest book. Assisting with the gifts were Mrs. J. Alex Thramer and Mrs. Mark Thramer.

After wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Thramer will make their home on a farm southwest of Clearwater.

The bride was graduated from the Ewing high school with the class of 1953 and for two years has taught in a rural school. The bridegroom was graduated from the Clearwater high school with the class of 1952 and is employed farming and trucking.

Guests attended from Ewing, Clearwater, Norfolk, Elgin, Page, Neligh and Spaulding.

Out-of-state guests were from North Dakota and Washington.

Postoffice Offers

Yule Mailing Tips

The O'Neill postoffice, soon to reel under the impact of Christmas and holiday mail, offered these recommendations for speedy, sure delivery.

1. Wrap well. 2. Tie securely.
 3. Address plainly inside and out.
 4. Mail early.
- "In fact," said Postmaster Ira H. Moss, "the earlier a package is mailed, the better chance it has of reaching its destination on time."

Packages mailed by December 14 should arrive in time for Christmas delivery, Moss said.

All cards should be mailed by December 20. Unsealed cards, signatures, may be mailed for two with no written messages except cents.
