

Menke - Burton
Nuptials at Butte

BUTTE—Sts. Peter and Paul Catholic church here was the scene of a wedding Wednesday, November 23, when Miss Lorine Menke became the bride of Loran L. Burton. Rev. Edward Gill performed the ceremony. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Anton Menke of O'Neill, and the late Mr. Menke. The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Burton of Hartington.

The bride chose for her wedding a royal blue suit with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of American beauty roses. Her jewelry was a pair of earrings, a gift of the bridegroom, and a gold cross and chain of her grandmother's.

Miss Ann Menke, sister of the bride, wore a copper-tone suit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of pink roses.

Urban and Lee Menke, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

A dinner for the immediate members of the families was held at Bonesteel, S.D. The table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake which was baked and decorated by Mrs. Rex Coburn and Mrs. Bill Coburn. It was served by Mrs. John H. Thoenes of the mother of the bride, and a Fordyce, sister of the bride.

After a short wedding trip to the Ozarks, the couple will be at home on a farm near Hartington.
