Visit in Lincoln—
 Mr. and Mrs. Dean Streeter and Martha Soukup returned Sunday from Lincoln where they had spent the weekend visiting Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Matthews.

CARDS OF THANKS

I WISH to thank the friends and relatives who sent flowers and cards to me while I was in the Sacred Heart hospital. A special thanks to those who cared for the children, and to the doctors and nurses for the fine care I received.
MRS. FRED KRUGMAN 50p

WE WANT to take this means of expressing our deep gratitude to each and every one who was so faithful to stand by us during this time of our great sorrow. To each of you who remembered to uphold us in prayer and love, we know the Lord will bless each of you. Words cannot express our appreciation to all who helped with the work at home, those who brought food, and the ladies who served the dinner at the home at Swan lake. Our heartfelt thanks for the many cards, letters, telephone calls, the food contributed for the dinner the day of the funeral, the dinner served by the Presbyterian and Methodist ladies and the lunch served by the Homemakers club, and to all who helped in any way at the house in town. We are deeply grateful to all who sent flowers and gave memorials. Each one that has had a part has helped to lighten the burden of our sorrow and encourage our hearts.—Mrs. Raymond Garwood, Faye, Marlene, Janet and Charles, Mrs. Dale Garwood, Mrs. Bert Garwood, Mrs. Charles N. Smith and the immediate families of Raymond and Dale.

Oh! Call it not death—'tis glorious rest.
 "Yes," saith the Spirit, "for all such are blest.
 They rest from their labors, their work is done
 In peace attained, the weary race run;
 The battle is fought—the struggle is o'er,
 The crown now replaces the cross they bore;
 The pilgrimage path shall no more be true
 As rest remaineth for the people of God."

We want to thank those who have been so faithful to remember us in our hour of sorrow. We so deeply appreciate those who have held us up in prayer and sent cards and letters of comfort, brought food and helped in any other way. May the Lord richly reward each one who has sent flowers and given memorials. We know that Dale is safe in Jesus. He is just away and the other side, John 5:24.—Mrs. Dale Garwood, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cuatt, Nancy and Nelda, Mr. and Mrs. James Coday, other members of the Cuatt and Coday families.
