Broncos Larrup Balers, 56-46

Initial Setback for Atkinson Crew

STUART—A capacity crowd was on hand for the game between the Atkinson Balers and the Stuart Bronchos at the Stuart high school auditorium Friday night, January 6.

The unpredictable Bronchos upset the undefeated Balers by a score of 56-46.

The Bronchos took the lead and kept it through the entire game with Seger of Stuart and Brewster tied for high point man with 18 points each.

The game was marred in the third quarter when Ronnie Frickel, Atkinson Baler, fell and broke his arm.

The reserves game went to the Bronchos 29-21. The Atkinson volleyball girls saved the night from being a total loss by winning from the Stuart girls, 35-23.

Sick & Injured

PAGE—Judd Russell, who has spent the past two weeks at Lincoln having a clinical examination and preparing for surgery was to have been operated on Tuesday. His daughters, Mrs. Ted Myers of Albuquerque, N.M., and Mrs. Gilbert Lampshire of Folk, went to Lincoln on Sunday to be with him. Mrs. Elmer Spann of Atkinson, another daughter, came Monday to stay with her mother at Page. Elmer Trowbridge received word that their grandson, Johnny Summers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Summers of Clarksville, Tenn., had spent six and a half days in the hospital during the holidays with an acute bronchitis and accompanying convulsions. Floyd Frahm went to Omaha Monday where he was to have surgery done at the St. Joseph hospital on Tuesday morning to correct an injury he received last fall when a tree hit him on the head while working with road equipment near Inman. Mrs. Delbert Anson was taken to St. Anthony's hospital and an emergency major operation performed Monday night. Her condition is satisfactory. Gene, small son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kelly, was hospitalized at St. Anthony's hospital Monday and Tuesday for an influenza condition.

EMMET—Frank Foreman entered Atkinson hospital Saturday. He was dismissed Monday afternoon. Carlene Pongratz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Pongratz, entered St. Anthony's hospital last Thursday where she underwent an appendectomy that evening. Sherry Fox, small daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Fox, suffered with an ear and throat infection over the weekend. Her brother, Roy, was ill on Monday. Influenza victims have included DeWayne Perry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Perry, son of Mrs. Gilbert Fox. Mrs. Alex McConnell became sick Saturday and consulted a doctor. She remained at the Walter Puckett home at Atkinson for a few days. Mrs. Jim Regal was operated on at St. Joseph's hospital, Omaha, last Thursday. She is getting along "as well as can be expected."

INMAN—Kenneth Coventry and son, Bob, drove to Sioux City on Friday to get Mrs. Coventry, who has been a patient in the St. Joseph hospital there the past four weeks. Mrs. Lee Conger, sr., entered St. Anthony's hospital on Thursday as a medical patient. Inman relatives received word on Saturday that Arthur Tomlinson, who went to Rochester, Minn., on January 2 for physical checkup, would undergo major surgery at the Mayo clinic on Monday, January 9. His son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Tomlinson of O'Neill left Sunday morning for Rochester to be near Mr. Tomlinson. Their two daughters, Bonnie and Jackie, are staying at the home of their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Watson, during their parents' absence.

O'NEILL—Preston Jones was downed Friday afternoon for the first time since he suffered a heart attack three months ago. Ben Vidricksen on Monday returned to his duties as manager of Harding Cream. He had been ill 45 days. Little Miss Linda Walters is staying with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Jones, until her mother, Mrs. Raymond Walters, is in the hospital. M. H. Horiskey was released Tuesday from St. Anthony's hospital after having been a medical patient there for three weeks.

CELIA—Ronnie Frickel got his right arm broken just above the wrist while playing in the Atkinson-Stuart basketball game Friday night.
