Bloomfield Bees Sting Eagles, 71-44

Chill Affects Blues in Early Stages
 A pesky swarm of Bloomfield Bees swarmed all over the visiting O'Neill high Eagles Friday night. Bloomfield won, 71-44 at Bloomfield.
 The Bees struck furiously and planted a 25-4 stinging on the visitors during the first quarter. The Eagles, smarting under the sting, had trouble finding the range.
 Coach Elmer Murman's kids didn't get a field goal until midway in the second quarter. The chill had enabled the Bees to build an enormous advantage.
 Bloomfield flashed a smart exhibition of ball handling, rebounding and they showed plenty of speed. The Bees, in a word, were superior.
 Don Lieth, replacing Frank Fetrow, who was injured before the Neligh game, led O'Neill with 13 points.
 Jim Hadley paced the well-balanced scoring attack for Bloomfield with 22 points. Six players had eight points or more for Bloomfield.
 O'Neill reserves saved a disastrous evening by taking the opener 33-14. Smith got 12 points for O'Neill while Andreesen had six for Bloomfield.

It's a way of HOLDING HANDS FOREVER

The chances are nearly three to one that your wife will survive you. If she does she will have over a hundred heart-rending duties to perform all within twenty-four hours.
 There is no finer way to prove your devotion than to suggest that you perform two of those duties now, together, rather than leave them for her to do alone.
 Select your family cemetery plot in a traditional monument cemetery. Erect on it a memorial of granite or marble which, through sun and shadow, wind and rain, will say to the world through all eternity—'We lived and loved and someday will live again.'
 As a local dealer-member of the Monument Institute of America we will render you sympathetic assistance. Call upon us today. All the rest of your lives you'll feel closer for having planned for tomorrow today.
