Ord Chanticleers in Easy Win, 72-27

Visitors Exhibit Too Much Finesse

Showing superior height, speed and finesse in every department, the high-g geared Ord Chanticleers easily overpowered the O'Neill high Eagles here last Thursday night, 72-27. The game was played before a half-filled house.

The visitors took command early, establishing apparent superiority. Ord was in front, 45-19, at the half.

In the preliminary the Ord reserves stopped the O'Neill reserves, 36-25. Ronnie Smith got 10 points for O'Neill while Troyer and Vasicek got six apiece for Ord.

Inman's Victory Streak Is Snapped

INMAN—The Inman Tigers, victors in the Sandhills Gateway conference tournament and the 1956 Holt county champions, tripped Tuesday night at Elgin. The Elgin Eagles emerged on top in a 53-52 upset.

The lead changed hands frequently. Gene Couch got 20 points for Inman. Elgin led 27-25, at the half.

Church League Games Well Attended

AMELIA—The basketball games played on Tuesday, January 24 and Friday evenings at Amelia for the 1956 polio fund were well attended. The Methodist boys won over the Catholic boys in both games.

The score of Tuesday night's game was 34-39. Bill Sammons was high point man for the Methodist team with 16 points. Buddie Butts was high for the losers with 14 points. The Merry Matrons served lunch, which with a free-will offering netted near $35.

The Amelia Progressive club served lunch at the game Friday evening. They netted 17.50 from the sales of the lunch, and the free will offering was about $20.

The last game of the polio drive was played Tuesday evening between the Amelia and Atkinson town teams. The Fairview precinct ladies served lunch.

Cardinals Win, Lose During Week

Spencer Downs SMA in Thriller

Coach Don Templemeyer's St. Mary's academy Cardinals lost to Spencer Monday night, 48-55, and walloped Naper on Tuesday night, 82-32.

In the Spencer game played here, the visiting Eagles were in front, 25-16, at the half. Dave Schaffer led SMA scoring with 16 points.

It was easy for the Cards at Naper, scoring almost at will. Schaffer got 16 points; Larry Tomlinson, Tom Schneider and Jim Froelich added 12 each.

St. Mary's plays St. Ludwig's at Creighton on Friday night.

Ashburn Crew in 68-62 Benefit Win

O'Neill's national guard basketball team was handed a 62-68 setback Wednesday night, January 25, by Ritchie Ashburn and his Tilden All-Stars. A polio benefit game was played here.

Two days later Ashburn went to Philadelphia, Pa. where the management of the Phillies baseball team signed Ritchie for 1956 for $25,000.

The guards will meet the Chambers' owners tonight (Thursday) at the O'Neill public school. A preliminary game will feature St. Mary's junior high vs. Inman junior high.

O'Neill Ousted from NCNC Loop Tourney

The O'Neill high Eagles scared the Ainsworth Bulldogs, 48-44, in the opening round of the North-Central Nebraska conference tourney at Ainsworth.

Ainsworth, a heavy favorite, had to wait until the final minute to get a four-point lead. The Eagles, using a slow, deliberate type of offense plus a tight zone defense, had the Bulldogs off balance most of the evening.

The teams fought toe-to-toe the first half with Ainsworth gaining a 20-19 halftime advantage. The Eagles tied the score several times the second half but were usually fighting a one- to three-point deficit.

Larry Conarro paced the O'Neill scoring with 14 points while Jim Johnson and Robert Young each contributed 12 points.

Robert Porter played an outstanding defensive game, holding George Haun, Ainsworth star guard, to six points.

Jim Miller and Roger Brede paced the Ainsworth scoring with 15 and 14 points respectively.

Meanwhile, the Stuart Broncoes smacked the Keya Paha county Indians (Springview), 56-34.

In Monday night games, the Valentine Badgers easily conquered Long Pine, 78-38, and Bassett knocked out the Atkinson Baletts 53-45.

There were no games Wednesday night. Semifinals will be played tonight (Thursday); finals, Friday night.
