Dorothy Donohoe Bride of Iowan

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Dorothy Louise Donohoe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Donohoe of O'Neill, and Buddy Eugene Cloyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Vurl Cloyd of Sidney, Ia.

The 10 a.m. ceremony was performed by Very Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor. The organist was Miss Rosemary Ralajizyk of Omaha. The soloist was Mrs. Donald Tigges of Carroll, Ia. She sang "Ave Maria" and "On This Day."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of white silk taffeta trimmed with seed pearls and iridescent sequins at the low cut neckline, long sleeves tapered to the wrist and the full and gathered skirt fell into a short train. Her fingertip veil was draped from a seed pearl coronet.

She carried a cascade bouquet of feathered carnations and red deli-ght roses. Also a white pearl rosary, a gift from the bride-groom.

Maid-of-honor was Miss Karen Donohoe. Bridesmaids were Miss Patricia Mullen and Miss Margaret Donohoe. They were identically gowned in ballerina frocks of red crystalite. They wore matching crowned hats and white gloves and carried cascade bouquets of white poms.

The bridegroom was attended by a friend, Marty Maher of Sidney, Ia. Groomsman were Perry Cloyd of Sidney, Ia., and Donald Donohoe of O'Neill. James Donohoe and Ray Donohoe, brothers of the bride, were ushers.

A breakfast was given at the Town House by the bride's parents for members of the wedding party. A reception for the couple was held at the home of the bride for over one hundred guests.

For traveling, the bride chose a dark tweed suit with black accessories.

The bride is a graduate of St. Mary's academy and St. Catherine's school of nursing. She has been employed here by Doctors Wilson and Langdon.

The bridegroom was graduated from Sidney (Ia.) high school. He has served in the armed forces.

Among out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Vurl Cloyd, Mrs. Ned Shiffer and Roger Shiffer, all of Sidney, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Perry L. Cloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Gene Glasgow, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Hickey, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glasgow, all of Thurman, Ia.; Nancy Looker, Winnie Smith, Joan Cotter, Darty Maher, Marty Maher, Lou Moss, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Potter, Donald Graham, John Joe Uhl and Rosemary Ralajizyk, all of Omaha; John Napier, Mrs. Harry Lampert, Pat Bauer and Jerry Rotherham, all of Ewing; Mary Lou Burberisk of Sioux City; Shirley Moorehead of Nebraska City; Helen and Kay Kaiser, both of Valentine; Mrs. Ralph Cloyd of Tabor, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Bohlen of Percival, Ia.; Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tigges and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Maystadt, all of Carroll, Ia.; L. J. Troshynski of Atkinson; Mr. and Mrs. Ed Prouty of Spencer; Bernadine Byers of Council Bluffs, Ia.

Lois Adams Weds John D. Langan

SPENCER—Miss Lois Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Adams, became the bride of John D. Langan at a nuptial mass in St. Mary's Catholic church at Spencer at 9 a.m. Thursday, February 9. Rev. William Foster officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of imported hand-clipped chantilly lace and nylon tulle over slipper satin. The moulded bodice was styled with a scalloped scoop neckline, long sleeves tapering to a deep point over the wrist and fastened with tiny lace buttons at the back. The full skirt featured a panel of lace at the front and tiers of lace. A matching lace pla-teau cap with pearl trim held her shoulder-length veil of imported French illusion. She carried a bouquet of roses on her prayer book.

Miss Jo Ann Adams, maid-of-honor, wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace over light blue taffeta. The fitted strapless bodice was topped with a cut-away jacket. The full bouffant skirt featured silk braid trim.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Fritz Lechtenberg and Miss Kath-eryne Bentz. They wore gowns identical to that of the maid-of-honor and carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

Thomas Langan, brother of the bridegroom, bestman, Fritz Lechtenberg and Donald Cizek were the bridegroom's other attendants.

Ushers were Ben Bazelman and Roman Philips, both of O'Neill. Flowergirls were Patricia Keefe and Lois Hamilton. They wore matching white dresses trimmed with lace. They carried red carnation bouquets.

Terry Langan was ring bearer for his brother's wedding. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Adams chose a charcoal suit trimmed with black. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy blue dress. Both wore red cor-sages.

At 12:30 o'clock dinner was served to 80 guests at the Community hall. A reception followed at 2 p.m. Miss Eljen Adams had charge of the guest book. Mrs. Gerald Hamilton cut the wedding cake. Mrs. Clara Miller poured.

Miss Vlasta Cizek and Miss Joan Fucelik had charge of the gifts. A wedding dance was given in the Spencer Community hall.

Mrs. Langan was graduated in 1950 from Spencer high school. Mr. Langan was graduated from St. Mary's academy in 1949.

After a short wedding trip the couple will make their home in Atkinson.
