

Easter Named for Goddess

By MRS. BLANCHE SPANN PEASE

Today I'm going to pass along another Lenten recipe or two, so that you'll have more of a variety. Those of you who do not observe Lent, remember that these are penny-saving dishes any time of the year.

HEAVENLY SALMON HASH
One medium onion (sliced), two tablespoons shortening or butter, 1 1/2 cups cooked diced potatoes, 1/2 cup sliced onions, two tablespoons butter, one can cream of mushroom soup, 1/2 cup milk, one can (seven ounces) solid pack tuna fish, two tablespoons chopped ripe olives, dash pepper.

Combine rice, water, salt and thyme in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork (do not stir). Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, saute the onions in butter until golden brown. Add soup and milk. Heat, stirring occasionally. Then add tuna fish, drained and flaked, olives and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Makes four or five servings.

SALMON SANDWICH LOAF
This would be nice for a luncheon or a club meeting. Remove the crusts from an uncut sandwich loaf, cut lengthwise into four slices. Spread each slice with mayonnaise. On bottom layer, arrange two sliced tomatoes and lettuce. Season. Add second slice, cover with one cup (1/2 pound) flaked canned salmon mixed with 1/2 cup Tartar sauce. Add third slice, cover with chopped mixture of four hard-cooked eggs, can of pimento, 12 ripe olives, mayonnaise. Add fourth slice. Press loaf gently into shape. "Ice" with three cakes creamed cheese blended with milk. Serves eight.

CREAMED TUNA FISH AND

HERB RICE
One and one-third cups packaged precooked rice, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/8 teaspoon thyme, rosemary, basil or savory, 1/4 cup sliced onions, two tablespoons butter, one can cream of mushroom soup, 1/2 cup milk, one can (seven ounces) solid pack tuna fish, two tablespoons chopped ripe olives, dash pepper.

Combine rice, water, salt and thyme in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened. Bring to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing rice gently once or twice with a fork (do not stir). Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes.

Meanwhile, saute the onions in butter until golden brown. Add soup and milk. Heat, stirring occasionally. Then add tuna fish, drained and flaked, olives and pepper. Mix and heat thoroughly. Makes four or five servings.

Easter Named for Goddess of Spring
Clearwater, Nebr.
Dear Mrs. Pease:
I'm teaching kindergarten in Clearwater in the forenoons so miss out on the "Voice of The Frontier." on Mondays and Wednesdays but always listen on Saturdays.

I must say I am unhappy when The Frontier fails to arrive on Thursdays — although it usually does.

I have found some interesting items about Easter I'd like to pass on to the readers. It gets its name in English from an Anglo Saxon goddess, "Eastre," who represented light or spring. Easter is the spring time Christian festival which honors the resurrection or rising from the dead of Jesus.

Some Easter customs are quaint and others are full of meaning. The idea of Easter eggs comes to us from ancient Egypt and Persia. Legend has it that they are laid by the Easter rabbit on Easter eve. White lilies often decorate the church. The lilies are a symbol of purity and light. The cross reminds worshippers of the true religious meaning.
