at 82d Milestone

Mrs. Mary E. Crawford, 435 E. Burkett st., Sheridan, Wyo., who celebrated her 82d birthday anniversary recently, now has 114 descendants.

Besides two daughters and five sons living of her eight children, she has 32 grandchildren and had 74 great-grandchildren when she celebrated her birthday anniversary Sunday, February 26, at a dinner attended by 55 relatives.

The 75th great-grandchild was a boy born to Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Fack of Tacoma, Wash. Mrs. Fack is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Crawford of Tacoma.

The dinner party was held at the home of Mrs. Henry Schollmeyer, 115 West Sixth, one of two daughters residing in Sheridan. Mrs. Coy Nelson is the other daughter.

Other relatives also assisted in giving the dinner. Among them: Mrs. Fred Martin, a granddaughter, and Mrs. John Crawford, a daughter-in-law, of Buffalo, Wyo., who baked the birthday cakes.

Mrs. Crawford, the honoree, received many cards and gifts from members of the family circle and friends. After dinner some of the group played cards during a social afternoon.

Guests attending from out-of-town included: Mr. and Mrs. Horace Crawford with their sons, Carlyle and William, all of Ewing; Mr. and Mrs. John Crawford and son, Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Purcell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde A.
