"When I die, bury me deep, put my English in my feet; put my flute on my chest, and tell Mr. Sawyer I did my best. Put my geography by my head, and tell Mr. Blezek I'm glad I'm dead. Last but not least, put my algebra by my side, and tell Mr. Gross that's why I died."

Gibbs-Angus Nuptials Read in Kansas

EWING—Miss Carolyn Louise Gibbs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David H. Gibbs of Plainville, Kans., and A/2c Max D. Angus, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Angus of Ewing, were married Saturday, March 11, at 7 p.m., in the Plainville Methodist church. The double-ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Dean E. Gleason, in a chancel setting of white gladioli and lighted candles in tall candelabra.

Mrs. Jack Pulec, organist, played the wedding music and accompanied Mrs. Harold DeBolt, soloist, who sang "Always," "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The bride, given in marriage by her stepfather, wore a gown of white satin and nylon tulle. The fitted bodice was designed with three-quarter length sleeves and was fastened with tiny seed pearl buttons. The daisy trimming on the collar was repeated on the bouffant skirt of tulle over satin. Her fingertip-length veil of bridal illusion fell from a half-hat of iridescent pearls. She carried a nosegay of red and white carnations with satin streamers.

The gowns of the attendants were similar in style to that of the bride. Miss Evelyn Harrison, maid-of-honor, wore a ballerina-length gown of aqua tulle over matching taffeta and carried a nosegay of white carnations. Miss Janice Masters of Hays, Kans., who lighted the tapers, wore a gown of golden tulle over taffeta. Her corsage was of rust carnations.

James Good of Ewing served as bestman. The ushers were Leslie Varwig and A/1c Kenneth Demki.

Mrs. Gibbs chose for her daughter's wedding a navy dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a navy dress with matching accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Guests were registered by Mrs. Leslie Varwig.

The ceremony was followed by a reception in Fellowship hall.

Mrs. Angus chose for traveling an aqua costume with white accessories.

The bride was graduated from the Plainville rural high school in the class of 1952. Before her marriage she was employed at the Hotel Shaw coffee shop.

The bridegroom was graduated from Ewing high school and for three years has been serving in the air force.

After a wedding trip to Omaha and Lincoln, the couple is at home at Salina, Kans., at Smoke Airman Angus is stationed at Wherry Hill AFB.

Out-of-town guests in attendance at the wedding included: The bride's grandmother from Garden City; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Angus and James Good, all of Ewing.

Foreign Students in Discussion

CHAMBERS—A group of students from the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, were guests at the Bethany Presbyterian church Sunday evening, March 18. Included in the group were two exchange students—one from Formosa and one from Afghanistan.
