

Arm Amputation for Knox Farmer

Ora Caskey is recovering satisfactorily in St. Anthony's hospital following an arm amputation. Mr. Caskey, who lives in the Middlebranch community, was grinding feed on Wednesday, March 21. He was having trouble with a belt coming off the machine. His right arm was caught in the grinder and he was badly wounded near the shoulder. Despite considerable loss of blood, Mr. Caskey made his way on a tractor to the home of a neighbor, Sidney Faulhaber, who lives across the road. Mr. Faulhaber rushed the injured man by car to the O'Neill hospital where an amputation was performed. Mrs. Caskey, who had been a patient at St. Anthony's until a few days before, was attending a club meeting at the Clair Schroth home at Brunswick.
