Mrs. Richard Seymour... April bride.—O'Neill Photo Co.

Frances Schaffer, Richard Seymour Take Vows Here

St. Patrick's Catholic church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Frances Schaffer, daughter of Mrs. Conrad Schaffer of O'Neill, and Richard Seymour, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Seymour of Grand Island, Tuesday, April 10. Rev. Timothy O'Sullivan, church pastor, officiated at the 9 a.m. high mass and double-ring wedding ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, David Schaffer, appeared in a white satin ballerina-length strapless gown which was styled with a long V-shaped bodice. An overbodice of chanted lace extended in flares over the full skirt and overskirt of nylon net. She wore a jacket of lace with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves which came to points over the wrist. Her fingertip veil was of matching lace and net. She carried a cascade bouquet of feathers, carnations with a built-in corsage and a white prayer book, a gift from her mother.

Rose Ann Schaffer, served her sister as maid-of-honor. She appeared in a ballerina-length princess style gown fashioned of mint green shantung silk with a matching headress and shoes. She carried a colonial bouquet of yellow daisies.

The bridegroom and his brother, William Seymour, who served as bestman, wore navy blue business suits with white carnation boutonnières.

The mother of the bride appeared in a brown suit dress with white accessories and wore a white carnation corsage. The bridegroom's mother chose a blue suit with blue and pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage.

Ushers were Thomas Head and Richard Eberl, friends of the families. Music was furnished by the St. Mary's choir.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the Town House. The bride's table was decorated with a three-tier wedding cake and yellow and white daisies. Mrs. Ralph Morrow and Miss Ann Judge took charge of the gifts; Miss Barbara Miller cut the cake and Mrs. Leonard Miller poured the coffee. William Seymour of Grand Island, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

For going-away the bride chose a light moss green two-piece suit with beige accessories. The couple will make their home in O'Neill where the bride is employed at St. Anthony's hospital and Mr. Seymour is employed by the bureau of reclamation.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Seymour and Mr. and Mrs. William Seymour and Lynne, all of Grand Island; Mr. and Mrs. Jake Schaffer and Mrs. Ed Schaffer, all of Norfolk; Mr. and Mrs. George Jeffrey and Bill Jeffrey, all of Venus; Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Coleman of Bassett; Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Burdick, Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Hagerman, Mr. and Mrs. Turk Beebout, Shirley Heermann, Ruth Hart, Charles Werner, Mr. and Mrs. James Rourke, Mr. and Mrs. "Pop" Coulter and William R. Williams, all of Ainsworth; Mr. and Mrs. Dick Eberl and Mr. and Mrs. W. Gassenhagen, all of Grand Island, and Perry T. Avard of St. Paul.

Business Meeting—The Friends of St. Mary's will hold a business meeting Monday evening, April 16, at 8 o'clock at the St. Mary's auditorium.

The Catholic Daughters held a business meeting Tuesday night. Miss Dorothy Wilkinson was initiated.

BIG NEWS Cooper's SUPER STARTER CRUNCHIES

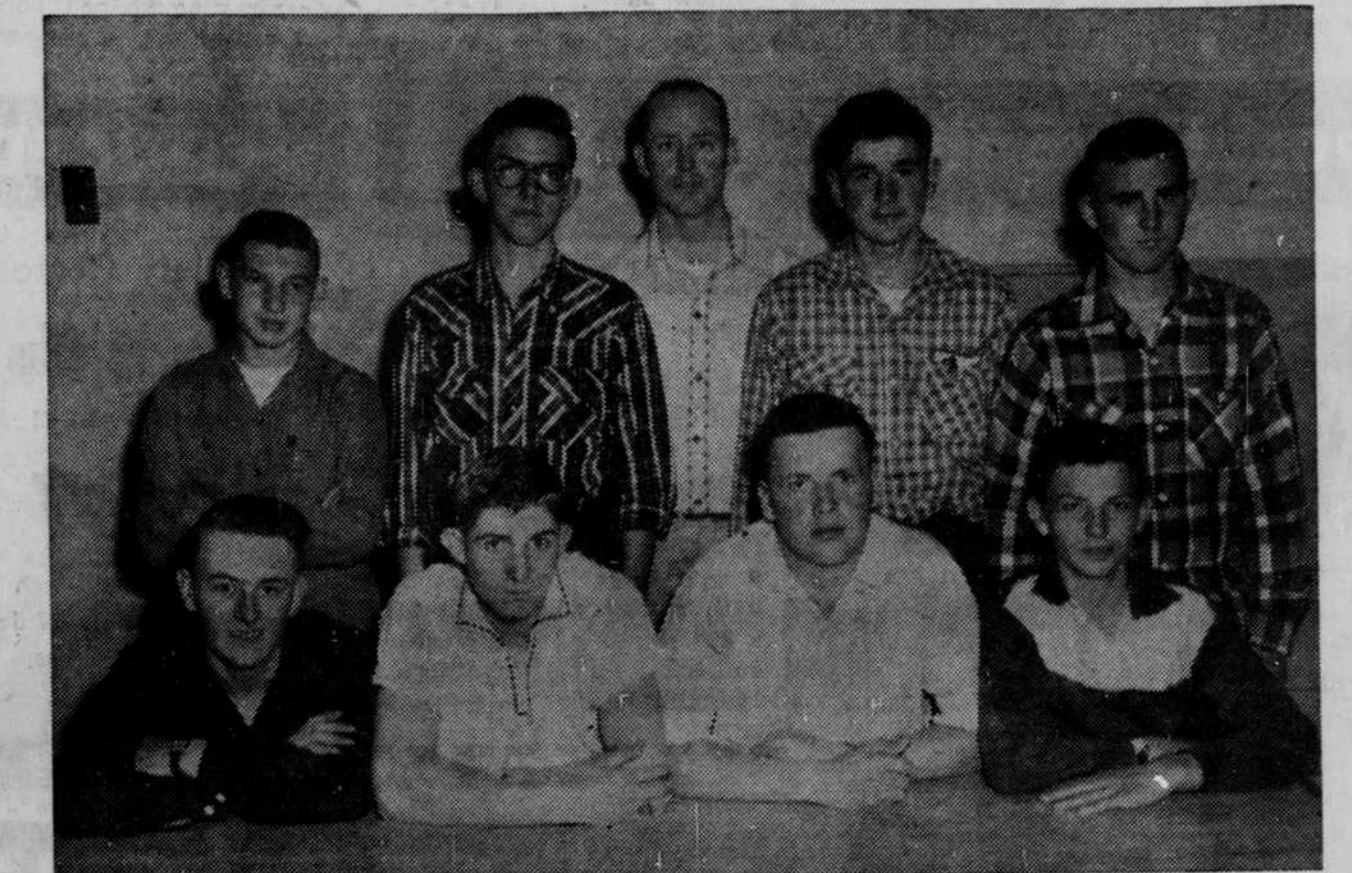

NOW CONTAINS NICARBAZIN and DPPD

- NICARBAZIN: Cuts death losses from coccidiosis to zero. Prevents bloody droppings in cecal coccidiosis. Eliminates the intestinal damage from coccidiosis. Permits development of natural immunity to coccidiosis. Increases feed efficiency—saves feed. Boosts poultry profits—better egg producers and top-quality broilers.
- DPPD: Prevents encephalomalacia ("crazy chick" disease). Increases vitamin utilization. Improves skin and shank coloring in broilers—a good coloring can make a real difference when the buyer comes around. DPPD also keeps SUPER STARTER CRUNCHIES fresh and appetizing longer, even when stored for lengthy periods at warm temperatures.

The outstanding advantages of Ni-Carbazin and DPPD in Cooper's SUPER STARTER CRUNCHIES add up to one thing—the most important thing in the poultryman's mind—"better, healthier chickens... bigger, better profits!"
