

Broken Homes Behind Many Boys Towners

Maurice ("Skip") Palrang, athletic director at Boys Town, was principal speaker at the annual athletic banquet held Sunday evening. Rev. Francis Price of Emmet was toastmaster for the St. Mary's academy function.

Palrang told his listeners any one of the 525 boys at the institution would exchange the privileges and life there for home life and for a mother and father. He said a boy's presence at Boys Town fell into five categories. Most of the boys come from broken homes and only a few are juvenile delinquents upon arrival.

Boys Town was founded by Father Flanagan, an Irish priest whose first assignment in the United States was assistant at St. Patrick's Catholic church at O'Neill.

Thomas Head and Angela Zakrzewski were king and queen. Coach Don Templemeyer made the following award presentations:

Head and Schmidt received athlete - of - the - year awards. Schaffer received the free throw trophy with Becker as runner-up. Matt Hynes was awarded third place medal.
