Conard-Troshynski Nuptials at Emmet
At the Church of the Epiphany in Emmet on Saturday, June 2, Miss Mary Louise Conard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John David Conard of Emmet, was united in marriage to Bernard Jerome Troshynski of Omaha, son of Mr. and Mrs. August Troshynski of Atkinson. Rev. Francis Price performed the 9:30 a.m. double-ring nuptial mass before an altar decorated with white, blue and pale lavender spring flowers. There were 250 guests.
The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a cathedral-length gown of rosepoint lace and tulle. Her lace bodice as styled with a sabbina neckline and the abbreviated sleeves were accented with pearls and sequins. Lace flowed into a panel on the skirt from front to back, forming a peplum. Tiers of ruffled tulle swept from the lace panel to form a full, sweeping skirt back. Her imported French illusion veil with hand-rolled edges and tulle flowers forming tiny gathers at the corners, was held in place by a crown of pearls and sequins. She carried a white prayer book topped by a white orchid.
Mrs. Kenneth Gilreath of Wayne was matron-of-honor. The Misses Elizabeth Schaffer of O'Neill, Mary Belle Sutton of Hartington and Lois Doerr of Plainview were bridesmaids. Their identical gowns of French blue lace and crystal were fashioned with empire bodices and full princess skirts in waltz-length. Their jeweled blue crowns held short blue veils. They carried garden flower arm bouquets.
Little Miss Candace Cole, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She appeared in a short, pale blue dotted Swiss gown. She, too, wore a tiny blue crown.
The ringbearer, Master Tommy Rome of Omaha, the bridegroom's nephew, wore a black velvet suit. Leonard Troshynski of Omaha, the bridegroom's twin, served as bestman. The ushers were Leon Schauf, Gerald Troshynski and Edward Rome, all of Omaha, Russell Solberg of Moorhead, Ia., and Thomas Slattery of Atkinson. They appeared in navy suits and wore white carnation boutonnieres.
The acolytes were Dennis Richards and Richard Pongratz.
Miss Jeanne Cole of O'Neill was soloist, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. John Tenborg.
The bride's mother appeared in a dusty rose organza lace gown with white accessories. The mother of the bridegroom wore a navy and white print with navy accessories. Both wore daisy corsages.
A breakfast was held for 30 guests at the Conard home following the ceremony. A reception for 250 guests was held at the Town House in O'Neill from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m.
Assisting at the reception were the Misses Hazel Marie Young of Walnut, Patricia DeBolt and Lorraine Miller, both of O'Neill, Barbara Mayne of Dow City, Ia., and Mrs. Leo Laible of O'Neill.
Mrs. Larry Schaffer and Mrs. Charles Marsten had charge of the gift table.
Mrs. Troshynski, who graduated from O'Neill high school and attended Wayne State Teachers college for two years, is employed by the Northwestern Bell Telephone company in Omaha.
Mr. Troshynski, who served 21 months in Germany, is a graduate of St. Joseph's hall, Atkinson, and is a fourth-year student at Omaha university.
After a two-weeks' wedding trip to Lake Okoboji, Ia., the young couple will be at home in Omaha.
Miss Mary Lou Uhl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Uhl, arrived home Tuesday, May 29, from St. Mary's college, Omaha, for her summer vacation. Her brother, John Joe Uhl, attended the Conard-Troshynski wedding Saturday and returned to Omaha.

MARKET REPORT "The Old Reliable"
Tuesday, June 5th
AUCTION
A very fine run of nearly 400 cattle met with a good demand at steady to stronger prices. Fully 50% of the receipts were canner, cutter and butcher cows, on a "hot" market that ruled fully 25 to 30 cents higher, with low grade canners at $9.50 to $10.00, medium cutters from $10.00 to $10.50, high cutters and butcher cows at $10.75 to $12.75 cwt. No quotable change on stockers and feeders from last week's good market. Top steers at $18.00 to $18.50 cwt. Butcher bulls $12.75 to $13.50 cwt.
Once again we urge our rancher friends to get those old canners and dry cows to market NOW. Any summer weight gains could easily be cancelled by late July with a $2.00 to $3.00 cwt. break in prices. Our order buyers are "hot" for cows — NOW!
