

C. E. Worth, Wife to Note Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Worth, who were married at the Methodist parsonage June 7, 1916, by Rev. Fred Bruce, will celebrate their 40th wedding anniversary Sunday, June 10, with their children and families, a few close relatives and friends. The affair will be held at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ben Wetzler. It will be a quiet observance.

The occasion will also mark the ninth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wetzler. Mrs. Worth was born in the Phillips and Mr. Worth in the Agee district north of O'Neill.

Their children, who expect to be present, are: Mr. and Mrs. Ben Wetzler, Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Worth, Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Wetzler of Gregory, S.D., Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Page of Page, and their families, and T/Sgt. Charles E. Worth of Wichita, Kans.

Their son, Junior, who is serving with the armed forces in Japan, will be unable to attend.

Mrs. Worth's brother, Roy Karr, and Mrs. Karr of Spencer expect to be present. The Worths are members of the Assembly of God church.

Lois L. Harder, Lt. Petersen Wed in Sunday Rite

Miss Lois Lorraine Harder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Harder of O'Neill, became the bride of Lt. Weldon Burdette ("Don") Petersen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Petersen of O'Neill Sunday, June 3, at 4 p.m., at First Presbyterian church. Rev. J. Olen Kennell officiated at the double-ring ceremony before a chancel decorated with white and pink gladioli and tall white candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride appeared in a gown of chantilly lace and nylon tulle over shimmering satin. It featured a "V" neckline finished with pleated tulle. The long lace sleeves tapered over the hand and her full tulle skirt fell into a sweep train, which was attached to a lace yoke extending over the hip line. Her French illusion fingertip veil was attached to a bandeau cap of lace edged with pleated tulle and held securely with hearts of pearls. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried a cascade bouquet of pink ctf roses.

Miss Patricia Gibb of Buhl, Ida., as maid-of-honor, appeared in a floor-length gown of pink nylon lace over pink taffeta. Her head bandeau and lace mitts were the same shade as her gown. She carried a colonial bouquet of white daisies, which was edged with pink.

Miss Jane Peterson, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Sylvia Harder, sister of the bride, as bridesmaids, appeared in identical frocks of pink embroidered nylon fashioned with draped off-the-shoulder necklines and empire bodices. The skirts flared into danseuse-length fullness. Their head bandeaux and mitts were of dress matching material. Their bouquets matched that of the maid-of-honor. All wore matching pearls.

Gerald Payne of Omaha served as bestman. He and the bridegroom wore white dinner jackets and black trousers.

The ushers, who wore navy suits and white carnation boutonnières, were Ted Lindberg and John Brady of Dorsey, John D. Harder, brother of the bride, was candlelighter.

Miss Donna Crabb, soloist, sang "All for You," "O, Perfect Love" and "O, Lord Most Merciful," with organ accompaniment by Miss Nancy Kennell.

Miss Carolyn Hiatt had charge of the guest book, which the guests signed as they filed out of the church.

A reception in the church parlors for one hundred guests followed. The reception table, which was pink and white, was centered by a four-tier cake surrounded by decorations of huge sugared wedding bells, daisies and lilies-of-the-valley were used to decorate the parlors.

Mrs. Ray Shelhamer cut the wedding cake. Misses Patricia DeBolt and Hazel Marie Johnson had charge of the gift table.

Assisting at the reception were the Mesdames Felix Hendrick and Arlo Hiatt, who poured.

Mr. and Mrs. Petersen are both graduates of O'Neill high school. Mrs. Petersen, who graduated from Hastings college, was elementary music supervisor at Plattsmouth. She was affiliated with Chi Omega Psi.

Mr. Petersen, who is stationed at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., attended Kemper academy in Missouri Washington university, St. Louis, Mo., and the University of Nebraska. He belongs to Pi Kappa Alpha.

After a wedding trip to the Ozarks and St. Louis, the couple will reside at Ft. Leonard Wood.

Out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Pederson of Broken Bow; Mr. and Mrs. George Larkin of North Platte; Dr. and Mrs. Vern S. Deyke of Columbus; Mrs. Rhoda Marsh of Redlands, Calif.; Miss Esther Kinnier of Spalding; Miss Viola Haynes of Page; Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Harder of Portland, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Edward Waara, Boyd and Carmen and Miss Winnie Waara, all of Buffalo, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ham of Burke, S.D.; Karl Zutz and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Zutz, all of Burke, S.D.; Miss Carol Zutz of Chamberlain, S.D.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Reece of Simeon; Mr. and Mrs. P.
