

Miss Arlene Walters Weds Gene Libby

Miss Arlene Walters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Walters of O'Neill, and Gene Libby, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loran Libby of Page, were united in marriage on Sunday, June 24, at the Assembly of God church. Rev. E. Kirschman performed the 2:30 p.m. double-ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of daisies and lilies.

Mrs. Howard Manson played the wedding music and accompanied the soloist, Carroll Lenz of Sioux City, who sang "Always" and "Wedding Prayer." Mrs. Richard Nelson and Mrs. Craig Connell, both of O'Neill, sang a duet, "O, Promise Me."

Given in marriage by her father, the bride approached the altar in a gown of lace and nylon net over taffeta. The fitted lace bodice was fashioned with a Peter Pan collar and long sleeves tapering to points over the wrists. The gown was highlighted by a very bouffant skirt which cascaded to the floor in alternating ruffles of net over lace. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a headpiece of orange blossoms. The bride's only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

As the bride approached the altar the bridegroom sang "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Allen Walters of Columbus, O., was matron-of-honor. Miss Demaris Lindberg of O'Neill was junior bridesmaid. They wore gowns of pink and green net over taffeta and carried bouquets of carnations.

Miss Sharleen Johring and Veneta Kirschman were flower-girls. Freddie Johring was ring-bearer.

Gary Devall and Miss Connie Brockman were candlelighters. The bridegroom's attendants were Allen Walters, as bestman; Russell Woepel, as groomsmen; and Ronnie Libby, as junior groomsmen. The bridegroom and his attendants wore grey and brown business suits with white carnation boutonnières.

A reception for 175 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Mrs. Norman Christensen had charge of the guest book and Mrs. Bennie Johring cut the wedding cake, which had been baked and decorated by Mrs. Bennie Johring and Mrs. Melvin Johring. Miss Peggy Alm and Glenna Walth poured.

Those who assisted in the kitchen were Mrs. Fritz Brockman, Mrs. Bennie Wetzler and Mrs. Cass Arrasmith. Serving was done by Beverly Thorin, Vernetta Krogh and Ruth Young.

Following a short wedding trip, the couple will make their home at 556 South 25th avenue, Omaha.

The bride is a graduate of O'Neill public school and has been teaching in the rural schools. The bridegroom was graduated from Ewing high school and is employed as an accountant by the Union Pacific railroad.

This wedding date was the 30th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

ATKINSON—The marriage of Miss Vivian Lemmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lemmer of Atkinson, and Merlin Otteman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Otteman, sr., of Pender, was solemnized in a double-ring ceremony Monday afternoon, June 18, at the Methodist church.

The church sanctuary was decorated with candelabrum and baskets of white peonies and mock orange blossoms. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown of embroidered tulle fashioned with a short-sleeved, shirred bodice. The pattern formed by the embroidered design gave an illusion of tier-on-tier in the full skirt. A pillbox crown of matching tulle, sprinkled with seed pearls, held the fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white gladioli, stephanotis and ivy.

Mrs. Ernest Campbell of Lincoln was matron-of-honor and Miss Pettijohn of Oregon, Mo., was maid-of-honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Frances Gottschall and Betty Coxhill. All were identically gowned in light blue, princess-styled, cocktail-length dresses. They wore blue net picture hats and carried cascade bouquets of red roses and ivy.

The Misses Joy Dvorak and Bonnie Clifford lighted the candles.

The reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride was graduated from the Atkinson high school and received a bachelor of science degree in education from the University of Nebraska. She was a member of Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Mr. Otteman attended the University of Nebraska, where he was a member of Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity. He is now attending the University of Nebraska school of medicine in Omaha, where he is affiliated with Phi Rho Sigma medical fraternity.

After a wedding trip to Minnesota the couple will reside in Omaha.
