Ainsworth Wins in 8-7 Thriller

O'Neill's Tying Run Dies on Third

The Ainsworth entry in the North-Central day - and - night league defeated the O'Neill Rockets, 8-7, Sunday night in a thriller at Ainsworth.

O'Neill went ahead in the first when Dick Tibbetts scored on Maynard Morrow's single. Ainsworth tied the score in the second on Lacy's single after Stolteneber walked.

O'Neill went ahead again in the third on singles by Tibbetts, Player-Manager Dick Tomlinson and Darel Graham.

Ainsworth took command in the fourth, 4-3, on Staab's double with the bases full. (Staab is Ainsworth high's new football coach.) The count was tied again, 4-4, in the seventh on Lowell Nesbitt's single, two stolen bases, and Morrow's long fly.

Two singles in the last half of the seventh and an O'Neill error enabled Ainsworth to take a one-point lead, 5-4, but the Rockets bounced back to tie it up again, 5-5, in the first of the eighth on singles by Morrow and Fritz Holz.

Ainsworth jumped to an 8-5 lead in the ninth on three hits and an O'Neill bobble.

O'Neill started the ninth with a triple by Tomlinson, who scored on Nesbitt's double off the centerfield wall. Nesbitt scored on Graham's single.

The Rockets had the tying score, Graham, on third, but he died there.

Tomlinson got three hits in four trips to lead the Rockets.

Batteries: Ainsworth — Staab and Clark; O'Neill — Larry Heiss and Jerry McGinn. Staab yielded 13 hits; Heiss, 8.

3-Way Tie Seen
A three-way tie for the first half honors in the North-Central baseball league looms with O'Neill assured of one berth with a record of three wins and two losses. Bassett also boasts a 600 record. A third team, Chambers of Ainsworth, will share the honors after the latter two clubs meet for a postponed game.

O'Neill entertained Spalding on Wednesday night, June 27, in an outside of the league game and the Rockets will entertain Ainsworth here Sunday night in a bonus game which will not figure in league standings.

Noeckers Hosts
Dinner and supper guests Sunday at the Art Noecker home were Mr. and Mrs. Reinold Becker of Hartington and Mr. and Mrs. Don Becker and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Dick Valondeeren of Sioux City. Mary Becker, who had spent the past two weeks in the Noecker home, returned to Hartington with her parents.

Buff Track Star Practices Hurdles

Larry Chace, former O'Neill high athlete who just finished an outstanding sophomore year at Colorado U. as a dash man, is working out daily at home this summer. In addition to keeping in trim on the sprints, he is practicing 60-yard low hurdles. He is also playing baseball with the Butte town team.

"I guess they got tired of hauling me 600 miles in any direction to make one short run," Chace explained, "so they're working me over for the dashes."

Chace, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Chace, logged plenty of mileage with the Buffalo track squad participating in indoor and outdoor meets. He does the 60-yard dash in .06.2 to .06.5 in Big Seven competition and has been a consistent point-getter for Coach Frank Potts' Buffs.

Chambers Midgets Win in Runaway
CHAMBERS — The Chambers Midgets, baseball team, easily spanked the Ewing Midgets, 27-3, in a game played at Ewing.

BASSETT WINS
CHAMBERS — The Chambers baseballers met defeat, 5-11, in a game with Bassett. The tilt was played at Chambers.
