Doris Henderson June Bride in Church Rites

EWING—Miss Doris Henderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Henderson of Orchard, and Carroll D. Marcellus, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Marcellus of Stuart, were united in marriage at the United Presbyterian church at Ewing at 7:30 p.m., Saturday, June 30.

Dr. William H. Ross performed the double-ring ceremony. Mrs. Lewis Coppel, cousin of the bride, played the wedding music and accompanied Lewis Coppel, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Bless This House".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a ballerina length gown of dotted nylon with a scooped neckline and short sleeves. Scattered pearl centered medallion lace daisies adorned the full skirt and upper bodice. A tiara of nylon, pearls and daisies held the double shoulder length veil of nylon net. Her bridal bouquet was of pink daisies, accented with pink net, satin leaves and streamers. She wore a single strand of pearls and carried her "Grandmother" Weber's wedding handkerchief. The bride followed the traditional "something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue."

Miss Audrey Henderson, sister of the bride, was maid-of-honor. She wore a pink dotted nylon gown, designed after the brides with a single veil of pink nylon net. She carried a bouquet of white daisies, accented with net and streamers.

Margaret Ann and Karen Marcellus, nieces of the bridegroom, were flowergirls. They wore ballerina-length dresses of yellow dotted nylon.

Edwin Rentschler, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as bestman. Ushers were Donald Marcellus and Harold Coburn.

All wore business suits with white carnation boutonniere.

Randy Rentschler, nephew of the bridegroom, was ringbearer. Eldon Henderson, brother of the bride, and Leon Rentschler, nephew of the bridegroom, had charge of the guestbook. The bride's mother chose a dress of navy blue and the bridegroom's mother a dress of black. Their corsages were of yellow daisies.

Reception for the guests was held in the church annex following the ceremony. Miss Mary June Rentschler and Miss Audrey Henderson had charge of the gifts. Mrs. Robert Fleming and Vance Anson poured. Mrs. Vance Anson cut and served the wedding cake, which was baked by Mrs. Z. H. Fry. Miss Lorna, Sharon and Margie Marcellus served.

The bride was graduated from Ewing high school. She attended Wayne State Teachers college and has taught rural schools in Holt and Antelope counties. The bridegroom is engaged in farming.

After a wedding trip to the Black Hills, the couple will make their home on a farm north of Atkinson.

Guests attending the wedding were from Wayne, O'Neill, Stuart, Atkinson, Orchard, Neligh, Oakdale, Page and Ewing.
