Nebraska Boy Wins Honors

Someday you may be riding in automobiles that look like these smartly-styled miniatures. These "dreams" won first place awards for their builders in the 1956 Fisher Body Craftsman's guild model car competition. Upper car was designed and built by Herman I. Rauth of York. Lower car is the work of Ivar R. Hansen of Johnson.

Walter Lawrence
Carnival to Be on Fair's Midway

The Walter Lawrence Carnival Co., a long-established amusement company operating in the famous Lake Okoboji region, will appear on the midway at the 1956 fair.

The Lawrence firm features three "kiddie" rides, several concessions, ferris wheel and pony rides.

"This reputable firm guarantees good clean fun for the whole family," according to President Lloyd Glead of the Holt County Agricultural society.

Seek $22,000 for Study of Elkhorn

An announcement made last week stated that a 22-thousand-dollar fund was approved by the house public works committee at Washington, D.C., for the study of the Elkhorn river and its tributaries. This study would be made by the army engineers.

Recent signing of a bill by President Eisenhower giving the go-ahead on the Ainsworth irrigation project means that this area of the state may soon see increased activity in the watershed development for irrigation and flood control.

Spes Participates in 'Operation Alert'

EWING—Pvt. Leo J. Spes, son of Mrs. Katherine Spes of Ewing, took part in the nationwide "Operation Alert" with the First infantry division's 32d field artillery battalion at Ft. Riley, Kans., Friday, July 20.

The alert included mock enemy attacks on key military installations and civilian industrial centers across the U.S.

Spes, a clerk in the battalion's headquarters, entered the army in September, 1955, and completed basic training at Ft. Chaffee, Ark.

He was graduated from Ewing high school in 1955.

Fire control on national forest lands was started 40 years ago.

The first U.S. census in 1790 listed 3,929,214 people.

Leon Sisson Feted on 80th Birthday

EWING—A family party was held Sunday, July 22, of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Sisson. The occasion was the 80th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Sisson, which was July 21.

The group picnicked on the lawn of Sisson's farm home. Mrs. Robley Sisson, sr., presented the birthday cake to her mother-in-law, who also received many gifts. The afternoon hours were spent visiting.

Present were: Mr. and Mrs. Otto Reimer of Lincoln; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Sorenson and her brother, Jack Sisson, of Omaha; Marvin Rexine Adrain of Wichita, Kans.; John Sisson, Mr. and Mrs. Robley Sisson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Rexine, Mrs. Mary Snyder, all of Ewing.

Farm Operations Course Scheduled —

Two short course sessions in farm operations and management have been scheduled for the coming year at the University of Nebraska college of agriculture.

The first session begins November 26. The second session will be January 7.

During the first session, irrigation water management and management of irrigated soils will be stressed. The second session will deal with swine production and farm management.
